Jonathan Fraser Light, 2016-03-25 More than any other sport baseball has developed its own niche in America's culture and psyche. Some researchers spend years on detailed statistical analyses of minute parts of the game while others wax poetic about its players and plays. Many trace the beginnings of the civil rights movement in part to the Major League's decision to integrate and the words and phrases of the game for example pinch hitter and out in left field have become common in our everyday language. From AARON HENRY onward this book covers all of what might be called the cultural aspects of baseball as opposed to the number rich statistical information so widely available elsewhere. Biographical sketches of all Hall of Fame players owners executives and umpires as well as many of the sportswriters and broadcasters who have won the Spink and Frick awards join entries for teams owners commissioners and league presidents Advertising agents drafts illegal substances minor leagues oldest players perfect games retired uniform numbers superstitions tripleheaders and youngest players are among the thousands of entries herein. Most entries open with a topical quote and conclude with a brief bibliography of sources for further research. The whole work is exhaustively indexed and includes 119 photographs. Novel Ideas Barbara Shoup, Margaret-Love Denman, 2013-05-01 Novel Ideas provides a substantial introduction to the elements of fiction followed by in depth interviews with successful novelists who speak with candor and insight into the complex process by which a novel is made. This edition includes new and updated interviews as well as writing exercises to enhance its use in the writing classroom. Dorothy Allison recalls deliciously self indulgent days of writing in her bathrobe wrapped in misery and exultation. Peter Cameron explains how he made the move from short fiction to the novel with the aid of a music composer's notebook to track the movement of his characters. Writers as different as Ha Jin Jill McCorkle Richard Ford and Michael Chabon describe their unique approaches to their work while consistently affirming the necessity of committing to the hard effort of it while also remaining open to surprise. Aspiring novelists will find hands on strategies for beginning working through and revising a novel accomplished novelists will discover new ways to solve the problems they face in process and serious readers of contemporary fiction will enjoy a glimpse into the way novels are made. Includes interviews with Dorothy Allison Larry Brown Peter Cameron Michael Chabon Michael Cunningham Robb Forman Dew Richard Ford Ha Jin Patricia Henley Charles Johnson Wally Lamb Valerie Martin Jill McCorkle Sena Jeter Naslund Lewis Nordan Sheri Reynolds S J Rozan Jane Smiley Lee Smith Theodore Weesner. Branch Rickey, 2009-01-01 He was not much of a player and not much more of a manager but by the time Branch Rickey 1881-1965 finished with baseball he had revolutionized the sport not just once but three times.
