The Human Right to Citizenship Rhoda E. Howard-Hassmann, Margaret Walton-Roberts, 2015-05-28 In principle no human individual should be rendered stateless the Universal Declaration of Human Rights stipulates that the right to have or change citizenship cannot be denied In practice the legal claim of citizenship is a slippery concept that can be manipulated to serve state interests On a spectrum from those who enjoy the legal and social benefits of citizenship to those whose right to nationality is outright refused people with many kinds of status live in various degrees of precariousness within states that cannot or will not protect them These include documented and undocumented migrants as well as conventional refugees and asylum seekers living in various degrees of uncertainty Vulnerable populations such as ethnic minorities and women and children may find that de jure citizenship rights are undermined by de facto restrictions on their access mobility or security The Human Right to Citizenship provides an accessible overview of citizenship regimes around the globe focusing on empirical cases of denied or weakened legal rights Exploring the legal and social implications of specific national contexts contributors examine the status of labor migrants in the United States and Canada the changing definition of citizenship in Nigeria Germany India and Brazil and the rights of ethnic groups including Palestinians Rohingya refugees in Bangladesh Bangladeshi migrants to India and Roma in Europe Other chapters consider children s rights to citizenship multiple citizenships and unwanted citizenships With a broad geographical scope this volume provides a wide ranging theoretical and legal framework to understand the particular ambiguities paradoxes and evolutions of citizenship regimes in the twenty first century Contributors Michal Baer Kristy A Belton Jacqueline Bhabha Thomas Faist Jenna Hennebry Nancy Hiemstra Rhoda E Howard Hassmann Audrey Macklin Margareta Matache Janet McLaughlin Carolina Moulin Alison Mountz Helen O Nions Chidi Anselm Odinkalu Sujata Ramachandran Kim Rygiel Nasir Uddin Margaret Walton Roberts David S Weissbrodt

European Populism and Human Rights Jure Vidmar, 2020-02-03 This volume focuses on the recent challenge posed by right wing populism to democratic consolidation in Europe and particularly explores the legal dimensions of this challenge Part One attempts to define political populism and explains why it poses a challenge to democratic political order in Europe Part Two examines the theoretical underpinnings of the populist challenge to human rights and democracy in Europe Part Three applies this theory to concrete examples and considers case studies including an old EU Member State two newer EU Member States and a non EU Member State party to the ECHR The aim is to examine the consequences of the present populist challenge in Europe that has been marked with excessively nationalist policies in some states party to the ECHR It is explored how the Convention rights have been undermined but also what the limitations are of the ECHR acting as a safety net for democratic consolidation in Europe

Social Justice and Israel/Palestine Aaron J. Hahn Tapper, Mira Sucharov, 2019-06-24 This book critically assesses a series of complex and topical debates helping readers to make sense of the politics surrounding the Israeli Palestinian relationship Each chapter considers one topic represented by two or three essays offered in conversation with one another Together these essays advance different perspectives in some cases they are complementary and in others they are oppositional Topics include scholarly and activist interpretations of narratives in the context of Israel Palestine the concept of self determination for Jewish Israelis and Palestinians the debate over settler colonialism as an appropriate framework for interpreting the history of Israel Palestine and questions surrounding Jewish and Palestinian refugees and the impact of displacement among others Through these foundational and contemporary topics readers will be challenged to critically examine the strengths and weaknesses of each position in light of scholarly debates rooted in social justice and helped to gain a deeper understanding of the relationship between Israelis and Palestinians in order to see a path forward toward justice for all

The Debt Crisis in the Eurozone Nikos Petropoulos, George O. Tsobanoglou, 2014-06-02 During the past four years the countries of the European periphery the so called PIIGS Portugal Ireland Italy Greece and Spain have been experiencing an economic financial crisis that can only be compared to the Great Depression To solve the crisis the EU and the IMF instituted bailout programs for the debit countries on conditions of austerity and structural reforms In this volume 20 social scientists using both theoretical and empirical tools delve into the causes and the social impacts of this crisis The volume also provides an excellent background for a better comprehension of the dynamics of structural and political changes now taking place within the European Union The social impacts cover a range of consequences including poverty unemployment anti migrant attitudes a decline of welfare and health indicators post traumatic stress disorders national humiliation political alienation and social protest The authors analyse the international and the domestic causes of the crisis while some of them underline the importance of both factors In the concluding chapter the editors undertake a synthesis of the previous chapters and extract a number of policy recommendations that if adopted could transform the current financial crisis into a growth opportunity for the European Union and its member states
