People Power The Community Organizing Tradition Of Saul Alinsky:

People Power Aaron Schutz, Mike Miller, 2015-04-27 Saul Alinsky according to Time Magazine in 1970 was a prophet of power to the people someone who has possibly antagonized more people than any other living American People Power introduces the major organizers who adopted and modified Alinsky's vision across the United States Fred Ross Cesar Chavez Dolores Huerta and the Community Service Organization and National Farm Workers Association Nicholas von Hoffman and the Woodlawn Organization Tom Gaudette and the Northwest Community Organization Ed Chambers Richard Harmon and the Industrial Areas Foundation Shel Trapp Gale Cincotta and National People's Action Heather Booth Midwest Academy and Citizen Action Wade Rathke and ACORN Weaving classic texts with interviews and their own context setting commentaries the editors of People Power provide the first comprehensive history of Alinsky based organizing in the tumultuous period from 1955 to 1980 when the key organizing groups in the United States took form Many of these selections previously available only on untranscribed audiotapes or in difficult to read mimeograph or Xerox formats appear in print here for the first time

Empowerment Aaron Schutz, 2019-05-23 This book provides an interdisciplinary examination of the multiple meanings of empowerment Rather than seeking to define and critique this term it draws out a range of different meanings exploring diverse possibilities for action and engagement We must carefully examine the possibilities and limits of the approaches to empowerment we choose Efforts focused on building individual skills and capacities for example may overlook opportunities for supporting more collective community based forms of social action In concise chapters the book maps out a range of ways that people can be empowered along different continuums of power moving from more familiar forms of teaching and counselling to less common and more radical strategies for fostering solidarity and civil resistance This will be of great interest to advanced students and scholars in a wide variety of fields particularly social work public health sociology education and international development as an introductory yet comprehensive study of the nuances of empowerment

Handbook of Community Movements and Local Organizations in the 21st Century Ram A. Cnaan, Carl Milofsky, 2018-05-22 This new handbook builds on The Handbook of Community Movements and Local Organizations published in 2007 and is the only resource defining the field of study related to small nonprofit organizations and to studying communities from the standpoint of associations that make up communities It explores the history and conceptualizations of community theoretical concepts in community organizations social movements ranging from health to crime and community practice methods Further it provides authoritative statements of major theory areas gives examples of different sub areas of the field provides guidance to people working as practitioners in the field and nicely coincides with the increasing interest in clinical sociology This handbook is of great interest to academics students and practitioners with an interdisciplinary resource to understand and collaborate in work with contemporary communities

VanGronigen, Polly Hyslop, Brian Jarrett, Izhar Oplatka, Gaetane Jean-Marie, Catherine M. Marshall, Becca Merrill, Jackie M. Blount, Whitney McIntyre Miller, Margaret Grogan, Gloria Ladson-Billings, 2018 What new ideas and ways of thinking can educational leaders learn from great world leaders who have moved their societies to greater equity and expanded educational opportunity In this lively accessible volume the editors have brought together an impressive group of senior and early career educational scholars to study the lives and contributions of a wide range of outstanding historical and contemporary leaders from the United States and across the globe This rich collection of brief biographical commentaries profiles leaders like Wangari Mathaai John Tippeconic III Fannie Lou Hamer Saul Alinsky Antonia Pantoja Jimmy Carter Golda Meir Sun Yat Sen Jos Rizal and Jesus Christ Each profile focuses on a single individual and includes 1 an introduction and biographical sketch 2 a discussion of their context and activities as a leader 3 a list of the key lessons we can learn from their leadership and 4 an explanation of how these lessons are relevant for today This unique collection bridges cultures professions and callings to help American education leaders create more just and equitable schools Book Features Profiles of a wide range of world leaders Insights from leading educational scholars and practitioners A diversity of international location gender race and conceptual focus An engaging style that bridges theory and practice perfect for courses and training programs Lessons school leaders can use to improve their practice Engagement Organizing Matt

Price, 2017-07-24 At any given moment there are hundreds of campaigns under way that seek to persuade citizens or decision makers to think act or vote in a certain way But what separates campaigns that win from those that don't This book shows how to combine old school people power with new digital tools and data to win campaigns today It explores the traditions and practices of organizing and how to marry these with digital communication tools to scale up campaigns and win Over a dozen case studies from NGOs unions and electoral campaigns highlight this work in practice At a time of growing concern about what the future holds this book is an indispensable guide not only for seasoned campaigners but also for those just getting started who want to apply the principles and practices of engagement organizing to their own campaigns for change

Resilience for All Barbara Brown Wilson, 2018-05-24 In the United States people of color are disproportionately more likely to live in environments with poor air quality in close proximity to toxic waste and in locations more vulnerable to climate change and extreme weather events In many vulnerable neighborhoods structural racism and classism prevent residents from having a seat at the table when decisions are made about their community In an effort to overcome power imbalances and ensure local knowledge informs decision making a new approach to community engagement is essential In Resilience for All Barbara Brown Wilson looks at less conventional but often more effective methods to make communities more resilient She takes an in depth look at what equitable positive change through community driven design looks like in four communities East Biloxi Mississippi the Lower East Side of Manhattan the Denby neighborhood in Detroit Michigan and the Cully neighborhood in Portland Oregon These vulnerable communities have prevailed in spite of serious urban stressors such as climate change gentrification and disinvestment Wilson looks at how the lessons in the case studies and other examples might more broadly inform future practice She shows how community driven design projects in underserved neighborhoods can not only change the built world but also provide opportunities for residents to build their own capacities

Cases on Academic Program Redesign for Greater Racial and Social Justice Cain-Sanschagrin, Ebony, Filback, Robert A., Crawford, Jenifer, 2021-11-19 Faculty and students confront persistent racial economic and social inequities in higher education locally nationally and globally To counter these inequities there has been a recent focus on universities providing an inclusive curriculum that serves the needs of students from a wide range of backgrounds Inclusive and equitable courses and instruction are crucial in today's world as calls for racial and social justice grow particularly in higher education Universities and instructors must take action and make changes to best serve their students Cases on Academic Program Redesign for Greater Racial and Social Justice provides an equity oriented practical guide for those in higher education who are engaged in the work of curricular reform or program development It also explores practices and approaches to curriculum development that consider program quality and equitable outcomes as mutually beneficial and necessary outcomes Covering a range of topics such as antiracism and mindful hiring it is ideal for teachers instructional designers curricula developers administrators academics professors educators researchers those working in higher education and students

Community Organizing and Community Building for Health and Social Equity, 4th edition Meredith Minkler, Patricia Wakimoto, 2021-12-10 The fourth edition of Community Organizing and Community Building for Health and Social Equity provides both classic and recent contributions to the field with a special accent on how these approaches can contribute to health and social equity The 23 chapters offer conceptual frameworks skill building and case studies in areas like coalition building organizing by and with women of color community assessment and the power of the arts the Internet social media and policy and media advocacy in such work The use of participatory evaluation and strategies and tips on fundraising for community organizing also are presented as are the ethical challenges that can arise in this work and helpful tools for anticipating and addressing them Also included are study questions for use in the classroom Many of the book's contributors are leaders in their academic fields from public health and social work to community psychology and urban and regional planning and to social and political science One author was the 44th president of the United States himself a former community organizer in Chicago who reflects on his earlier vocation and its importance Other contributors are inspiring community leaders whose work on the ground and in partnership with us outsiders highlights both the power of collaboration and the cultural humility and other skills required to do it well Throughout this book and particularly in the case studies and examples shared the role of context is critical and never far from view Included here most recently are the horrific and continuing toll of the COVID 19 pandemic and a long overdue yet still greatly circumscribed national reckoning with systemic racism in the aftermath of the brutal police killing of yet another unarmed Black person and then another and another seemingly without end In many chapters the authors highlight different facets of the Black Lives Matter movement that took on new life across the country and the world in response to these atrocities In other chapters the existential threat of climate change and grave threats to democracy also are underscored View the Table of Contents and introductory text for the supplementary instructor resources https://d3tto5i5w9ogdd.cloudfront.net/wp-content/uploads/2022/02/041430469781978832176_optimized_sampler.pdf Supplementary instructor resources are available on request <https://www.rutgersuniversitypress.org/communityorganizing>
