 Shifting Views draws together a selection of writing from across twenty five years of these conferences to provide a fascinating view into the region's architectural history discipline. The essays collected here from such diverse thinkers as Judith Brine, Joan Kerr, Miles Lewis, Sarah Treadwell, Philip Goad, Julie Willis and Mike Austin reflect some of the most illuminating debates from these conferences. Together these essays capture a tone of critical inquiry and the conditions of writing architectural history in Australia and New Zealand. Shifting Views takes us into the mechanics of architectural history making, exposing its foundations and demonstrating how they can be called to account. It shows us how architectural history has been made and revised, giving us a glimpse of the means by which our past becomes our history. BOOK JACKET

Adopting the Tune of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within Perception In Architecture Here And Now

In a global consumed by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate conversation, the melodic splendor and mental symphony produced by the published term frequently diminish into the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. However, set within the pages of Perception In Architecture Here And Now a wonderful fictional value overflowing with fresh feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an outstanding musician of language, that charming masterpiece conducts viewers on an emotional journey, skillfully unraveling the concealed tunes and profound affect resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of the touching examination, we shall explore the book's central harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers' souls.
