Perplex In Faith Essays On Victorian Beliefs And Doubts:

Perplex in Faith Alisa Clapp-Itnyre, 2015 "Perplex in Faith" Alisa Clapp-Itnyre, Julie Melnyk, 2015-02-27 In the last twenty years there has been a growing recognition of the centrality of religious beliefs to an understanding of Victorian literature and society This interdisciplinary collection makes a significant contribution to post secularist scholarship on Victorian culture reflecting the great diversity of religious beliefs and doubts in Victorian Britain with essays on Protestant Catholic Jewish Unitarian and spiritualist topics Writing from a variety of disciplinary perspectives for an interdisciplinary audience the essayists investigate religious belief using diverse historical and literary sources including journalism hymns paintings travel writings scientific papers novels and poetry Essays in the volume examine topics including The relation between science and religion in the career of evolutionary biologist Alfred Russel Wallace Thomas Prasch The continuing significance of the Bible in geopolitical discourse Eric Reisenauer The role of children and children s hymns in the missionary and temperance movements Alisa Clapp Itnyre The role of women in Christian and Jewish traditions Julie Melnyk and Lindsay Dearing The revival of Catholicism and Catholic culture and practices Katherine Haldane Grenier and Michelle Meinhardt The occult religious society Golden Dawn Sharon Cogdill Faith in the writings of the Bront sisters Christine Col n Charles Dickens Jessica Hughes and George Eliot Robert Koeppe Nineteenth-Century Religion, Literature and Society Naomi Hetherington, Rebecca Styler, Angharad Eyre, Richa Dwor, Clare Stainthorp, 2021-11-09 This four volume historical resource provides new opportunities for investigating the relationship between religion literature and society in Britain and its imperial territories by making accessible a diverse selection of harder to find primary sources These include religious fiction poetry essays memoirs sermons travel writing religious ephemera unpublished notebooks and pamphlet literature Spanning the long nineteenth century c 1789 1914 the resource departs from older models of the Victorian crisis of faith in order to open up new ways of conceptualising religion A key concern of the resource is to integrate non Christian religions into our understanding and representations of religious life in this period Each volume is framed around a different meaning of the term religion Volume one on Traditions offers an overview of the different religious traditions and denominations present in Britain in this period Volume two on Mission and Reform considers the social and political importance of religious faith and practice as expressed through foreign and domestic mission and philanthropic and political movements at home and abroad Volume three turns to Religious Feeling as an important and distinct category for understanding the ways in which religion is embodied and expressed in culture Volume four on Disbelief and New Beliefs explores the transformation of the religious landscape of Britain and its imperial territories during the nineteenth century as a result of key cultural and intellectual forces The resource is aimed primarily at researchers and students working within the fields of literature and social and religious history It supplies an interpretative context for sources in the form of explanatory headnotes to each source or group of sources and volume introductions that explore overarching themes Each volume can be read independently but they work together to elucidate the complex and multi faceted nature of nineteenth century religious life Women in Christianity in the Age of Empire Janet Wootton, 2022-03-07 Women in Christianity in the Age of Empire 1800 1920 offers a broad view of the nineteenth century as a time of dramatic change particularly for women critiqued in the light of postcolonial theory This edited volume includes important contributions from academics in the field Overarching themes include the cult of domesticity the changing impact of Christianity on views of women s nature in an age of scientific thinking conflation of gospel and civilization in global mission and the exclusion of women from public spheres of life We meet powerful saints campaigners and thinkers who bring about genuine transformation in the lives of women and in society But we also recognize the long shadow of Empire in the world of the twenty first century critiquing Colonialism and Empire and views that restricted women s lives This engaging volume will be of key interest to students and scholars in Religion and Cultural Studies Exploring the complexities of the nineteenth century it draws on a range of scholarship including TV documentaries film online and more traditional academic resources Alfred Tennyson Laurence W. Mazzeno, 2020-09-29 Alfred Tennyson was a poet all his life writing more than a thousand works in virtually every poetic genre Considered by his Victorian contemporaries the pre eminent poet of the age he has become a canonical figure who is widely read and studied today Consequently his poems appear on the syllabi of both survey courses in Victorian literature as well as upper division and graduate level topics courses that cover Victorian studies or address subjects such as environmental studies religion elegiac poetry and Arthurian literature This companion makes Tennyson s poetry accessible to contemporary readers by identifying some of the formal elements of the poems highlighting their relevance to Tennyson s Victorian contemporaries and explaining their enduring appeal and value Entries in the companion organized alphabetically provide essential details about Tennyson s most anthologized poems offer suggestions for reading and interpretation and elucidate unfamiliar historical and literary allusions Additional entries a biography of Tennyson and a selected bibliography of recent criticism offer information about the people places events and issues that influenced Tennyson or were important to him and his contemporaries Silas Marner George Eliot, 2017 Falsely accused cut off from his past Silas the weaver is reduced to a spider like existence endlessly weaving his web and hoarding his gold Meanwhile Godfrey Cass son of the squire contracts a secret marriage The Methodist Review Quarterly , 1912 Quarterly Review of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South , 1912 Transforming the World? David Smith, 1998 Traces the history of the social ethics of Evangelicalism in Britain from its origins The focus is on Britain but this book provides valuable insight into the holistic evangelicalism that drove the first wave of missionaries inspired by William Carey and others The Age of Doubt Christopher Lane, 2011-01-01 The Victorian era was the first great Age of Doubt and a critical moment in the history of Western ideas Leading nineteenth century intellectuals battled the Church and struggled to absorb radical scientific discoveries that upended everything the Bible had taught them about the world In The Age of Doubt distinguished scholar Christopher Lane tells the fascinating story of a society under strain as virtually all aspects of life changed abruptly In deft portraits of scientific literary and intellectual icons who challenged the prevailing religious orthodoxy from Robert Chambers and Anne Bronte to Charles Darwin and Thomas H Huxley Lane demonstrates how they and other Victorians succeeded in turning doubt from a religious sin into an ethical necessity The dramatic adjustment of Victorian society has echoes today as technology science and religion grapple with moral issues that seemed unimaginable even a decade ago Yet the Victorians crisis of faith generated a far more searching engagement with religious belief than the new atheism that has evolved today More profoundly than any generation before them the Victorians came to view doubt as inseparable from belief thought and debate as well as a much needed antidote to fanaticism and unbridled certainty By contrast a look at today s extremes from the biblical literalists behind the Creation Museum to the dogmatic rigidity of Richard Dawkins s atheism highlights our modern day inability to embrace doubt "There Lives More Faith in Honest Doubt ..." Earl Dean Kelly,2001 Anatomy of a Controversy Josef L. Altholz,1994 Controversy especially religious controversy was the great spectator sport of Victorian England This work is a study of the biggest and best of Victorian religious controversies Essays and Reviews 1860 was a composite volume of seven authors six of them Anglican clergymen which brought England its first serious exposure to biblical criticism It evoked a controversy lasting four years including articles in newspapers magazines and reviews clerical and episcopal censures a torrent of tracts pamphlets and sermons followed by weightier tomes and reviews of all these prosecution for heresy in the ecclesiastical courts appeal to the highest secular court condemnation by the Convocation of the clergy and a debate in Parliament Essays and Reviews was the culmination and final act of the Broad Church movement Outwardly the conflict ended inconclusively at a deeper level it marked the exhaustion both of the Broad Church and of Anglican orthodoxy and the commencement of an era of religious doubt This controversy illustrates the pathology of Victorian religion in its demonstration of the propensity to controvert and the methods of controversialists It is both the greatest Victorian crisis of faith and the best case study of Victorian religious controversy The Soul of Doubt Dominic Erdozain,2015-08-31 It is widely assumed that science is the enemy of religious faith The idea is so pervasive that entire industries of religious apologetics converge around the challenge of Darwin evolution and the secular worldview This book challenges such assumptions by proposing a different cause of unbelief in the West the Christian conscience Tracing a history of doubt and unbelief from the Reformation to the age of Darwin and Karl Marx Dominic Erdozain argues that the most powerful solvents of religious orthodoxy have been concepts of moral equity and personal freedom generated by Christianity itself Revealing links between the radical Reformation and early modern philosophers such as Baruch Spinoza and Pierre Bayle Erdozain demonstrates that the dynamism of the Enlightenment including the very concept of natural reason espoused by philosophers such as Voltaire was rooted in Christian ethics and spirituality The final chapters explore similar themes in the era of Darwin and Marx showing how moral revolt preceded and transcended the challenges of evolution and scientific materialism in the unseating of religious belief The picture that emerges is not of a secular challenge to religious faith but a series of theological insurrections against divisive accounts of Christian orthodoxy The Eclipse Of Faith Or, A Visit To A Religious Sceptic Henry Rogers,2021-05-07 The Eclipse Of Faith Or A Visit To A Religious Sceptic has been considered by academicians and scholars of great significance and value to literature This forms a part of the knowledge base for future generations So that the book is never forgotten we have represented this book in a print format as the same form as it was originally first published Hence any marks or annotations seen are left intentionally to preserve its true nature Faith and Unfaith, and Other Essays C. The faith of honest doubt George Sherwood Eddy,1916 The Doubting Believer Obadiah Sedgwick,2017-03-07 Am I really a Christian At one time or another all believers encounter periods of doubt regarding the genuineness of their faith In this book Puritan pastor Obadiah Sedgwick explores the kinds of doubt that commonly arise in the context of true saving faith gently guiding the reader through fourteen circumstances likely to produce uncertainty Using the Bible as a roadmap the author helps us navigate away from the rocky shoals of doubt into the safe harbor of assurance Obadiah Sedgwick c 1600 1658 was a Presbyterian pastor and member of the Westminster Assembly Originally published in 1641 this classic treatise has been carefully prepared to benefit a new generation of Christian readers Archaic language has been gently modernized and helpful footnotes have been added to aid the reader This edition includes a foreword by Dr Don Kistler a biographical preface Scripture index and review questions designed to facilitate group discussion or personal reflection The Battle of Belief Nevison Loraine,2015-06-30 Excerpt from The Battle of Belief A Review of the Present Aspects of the Conflict Religion claims as its own the new light which metaphysics and science are in our day throwing upon the truth of the immanence of God it protests only against those imperfect because premature syntheses which in the interests of abstract speculation would destroy religion It dares to maintain that the Fountain of wisdom and religion is God and if these two streams shall turn aside from Him both must assuredly run dry For human nature craves to be both religious and rational And the life which is not both is neither Aubrey Moore About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Victorian Crisis of Faith Victorian Crisis ...,1970
