The study by Alexandra Bernhardt deals with coworking spaces and their atmospheres. In addition to a comprehensive consideration of the role of atmospheres, the special significance of community in the context of these work spaces is examined in more detail. Two case studies in urban coworking spaces form the core of the investigation, following a qualitative research design oriented towards ethnography and a plurality of methods. In the context of the analysis, on the one hand, what constitutes coworking in everyday life and thus the new communality at work is considered relevant practices and rituals, spatial arrangements and atmospheres are elaborated in their composition. On the other hand, coworkers, their spatial actions and the attitudes associated with them come into closer focus. It is shown how users access coworking spaces as work and community spaces and what role atmospheres play. In addition, social entities are highlighted that are taken up by coworkers in relation to their coworking space and that help shape everyday coworking space life. Tensions that arise from the coexistence of community and service logic are also uncovered and how they are dealt with is examined in more detail.

Workers? United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Operations. Employment and Housing Subcommittee, 1988 Folded Notes from High School Matt Boren, 2018-04-03. A status obsessed senior unexpectedly falls for a freshman because of his Danny Zuko audition in their high school's production of Grease in this outrageously funny epistolary novel set in 1991. Matt Boren brilliantly captures the voices of students way back in 1992 with humor and wit and a unique ability to shift from freshman to senior boy to girl cheerleader to theater geek. In this hilarious novel Boren adeptly proves that the more things change the more things stay the same. Kelly Ripa: The folded notes collected for this book represent correspondence surrounding one Tara Maureen Murphy, senior at South High c. 1991-1992. It's 1991 and Tara Maureen Murphy is finally on top. A frightening cross between Regina George and Tracy Flick. Tara Maureen Murphy is any high school's worst nightmare, bringing single minded ambition, narcissism, manipulation and jealousy to new extremes in this outrageous satirical twist on the coming of age novel She's got a hot jock boyfriend in Christopher Patrick Caparelli her best friend Stef Campbell by her side and she's a SENIOR poised to star as Sandy in South High's production of Grease Clinching the role is just one teensy step in Tara's plot to get out of her hometown and become the Broadway starlet she was born to be She's grasping distance from the finish line graduation and college are right around the corner but she has to remain vigilant This dumb town as we know can be a very tricky place Tara Maureen Murphy It gets trickier with the arrival of freshman Matthew Bloom whose dazzling audition for the role of Danny Zuko turns Tara's world upside down Freshmen belong in the chorus not the spotlight But Tara's outrage is tinged with an unfamiliar emotion at least to her adoration And what starts as a conniving ploy to mentor young Matt quickly turns into a romantic obsession that threatens to topple Tara's hard won status at South High
