Directory of Rare Book and Special Collections in the UK and Republic of Ireland Karen Attar, 2016-05-31 This directory is a handy on-volume discovery tool that will allow readers to locate rare book and special collections in the British Isles. Fully updated since the second edition was published in 1997, this comprehensive and up-to-date guide encompasses collections held in libraries, archives, museums and private hands. The Directory provides a national overview of rare book and special collections for those interested in seeing quickly and easily what a library holds. Directs researchers to the libraries most relevant for their research. Assists libraries considering acquiring new special collections to assess the value of such collections beyond the institution, showing how they fit into a unique and distinctive model. Each entry in the Directory provides background information on the library and its purpose, full contact details, the quantity of early printed books, information about particular subject and language strengths, information about unique works and important acquisitions, descriptions of named special collections and deposited collections. Readership: Researchers, academic liaison librarians and library managers.
