Peripheral Visions For Writing Centers:

Peripheral Visions for Writing Centers Jackie Grutsch McKinney, 2013-04-15 Peripheral Visions for Writing Centers aims to inspire a re conception and re envisioning of the boundaries of writing center work Moving beyond the grand narrative of the writing center that it is solely a comfortable yet iconoclastic place where all students go to get one to one tutoring on their writing McKinney shines light on other representations of writing center work McKinney argues that this grand narrative neglects the extent to which writing center work is theoretically and pedagogically complex with ever changing work and conditions and results in a straitjacket for writing center scholars practitioners students and outsiders alike Peripheral Visions for Writing Centers makes the case for a broader narrative of writing center work that recognizes and theorizes the various spaces of writing center labor allows for professionalization of administrators and sees tutoring as just one way to perform writing center work McKinney explores possibilities that lie outside the grand narrative allowing scholars and practitioners to open the field to a fuller richer and more realistic representation of their material labor and intellectual work Strategies for Writing Center Research Jackie Grutsch McKinney, 2015-09-15 Strategies for Writing Center Research is a how to guide for conducting writing center research introducing newcomers to the field to the methods for data collection analysis and reporting appropriate for writing center studies

Writing Centers in the Higher Education Landscape of the Arabian Gulf Osman Z. Barnawi, 2017-09-06 This book addresses issues surrounding writing centers in the Arabian Gulf region Including a foreword by Professor Ken Hyland it brings together a number of thought provoking chapters on the history concept and ground realities coupled with critical comparative discussions of writing centres in the region The book begins by offering critical historical accounts of writing centers in the Gulf countries before moving onto empirical research and reports on pedagogical practices that vividly capture the on the ground realities faced and experienced by different actors These accounts serve to highlight how the writing centers vary between countries as well as how they differ from the more well known writing centers in the US and the UK Finally the book explores what sort of commonalities and differences the current trend of writing centres is producing within and between the six countries of the Arabian Gulf This book will be highly relevant to those involved with writing centres along with directors policymakers researchers and teacher educators in the fields of Education and Sociology particularly those with an interest in the Arabian Gulf area

The Working Lives of New Writing Center Directors Nicole I. Caswell, Jackie Grutsch McKinney, Rebecca Jackson, 2016-10-03 The first book length empirical investigation of writing center directors labor The Working Lives of New Writing Center Directors presents a longitudinal qualitative study of the individual professional lives of nine new directors Inspired by Kinkead and Harris's Writing Centers in Context 1993 the authors adopt a case study approach to examine the labor these directors performed and the varied motivations for their labor as well as the labor they ignored deferred or sidelined temporarily whether or not they wanted to The study shows directors engaged in various types of labor everyday disciplinary and emotional and reveals that labor is never restricted to a list of job responsibilities although those play a role Instead labor is motivated and shaped by complex and unique combinations of requirements expectations values perceived strengths interests and desires identities and knowledge The cases collectively distill how different institutions define writing and appropriate resources to writing instruction and support informing the ongoing wider cultural debates about skills writing and otherwise the preparation of educators the renewal tenuring of educators and administrative bloat in academe The nine new directors discuss more than just their labor they address their motivations their sense of self and their own thoughts about the work they do facets of writing center director labor that other types of research or scholarship have up to now left invisible The Working Lives of New Writing Center Directors strikes a new path in scholarship on writing center administration and is essential reading for present and future writing center administrators and those who mentor them

Disruptive Stories Elizabeth Kleinfeld, Sohui Lee, Julie Prebel, 2024-06-28 Disruptive Stories uses an activist editing method to select and publish authors that have been marginalized in scholarly conversations and enrich the understanding of lived writing center experiences that have been underrepresented in writing center scholarship These chapters explore how marginality affects writing centers the people who work in them and the scholarship generated from them by examining the consequences both positive and negative of marginalization through a mix of narratives and research Contributors provide unique perspectives ranging across status role nationality race and ability While US tenure track writing center administrators WCAs do not make up the majority of those who hold WCA positions in writing centers they are more likely to be the storytellers of the writing center grand narrative They publish more present more conference papers edit more journals and participate more in organizational leadership This collection complicates that narrative by adding marginalized voices and experiences in three thematic categories structural marginalization globalization and marginalization and embodied marginalization Disruptive Stories spurs further conversations about ways to improve the review process in writing center scholarship so that it more accurately reflects the growing diversity of its administrators and practitioners

Re/Writing the Center Susan Lawrence, Terry Myers Zawacki, 2019-03-15 Re Writing the Center illuminates how core writing center pedagogies and institutional arrangements are complicated by the need to create intentional targeted support for advanced graduate writers Most writing center tutors are undergraduates whose lack of familiarity with the genres preparatory knowledge and research processes integral to graduate level writing can leave them underprepared to assist graduate students Complicating the issue is that many of the graduate students who take advantage of writing center support are international students The essays in this volume show how to navigate the divide between traditional writing center theory and practices developed to support undergraduate writers and the growing demand for writing centers to meet the needs of advanced graduate writers Contributors address core assumptions of writing center pedagogy such as the concept of peers and peer tutoring the emphasis on one to one tutorials the positioning of tutors as generalists rather than specialists and even the notion of the writing center as the primary location or center of the tutoring process Re Writing the Center offers an imaginative perspective on the benefits writing centers can offer to graduate students and on the new possibilities for inquiry and practice graduate students can inspire in the writing center Contributors Laura Brady Michelle Cox Thomas Deans Paula Gillespie Mary Glavan Marilyn Gray James Holsinger Elena Kallestinova Tika Lamsal Patrick S Lawrence Elizabeth Lenaghan Michael A Pemberton Sherry Wynn Perdue Doug Phillips Juliann Reineke Adam Robinson Steve Simpson Nathalie Singh Corcoran Ashly Bender Smith Sarah Summers Molly Tetreault Joan Turner Bronwyn T Williams Joanna Wolfe Handbook of Second and Foreign Language Writing Rosa M. Manchón, Paul Kei Matsuda, 2016-09-12 The Handbook of Second and Foreign Language Writing is an authoritative reference compendium of the theory and research on second and foreign language writing that can be of value to researchers professionals and graduate students It is intended both as a retrospective critical reflection that can situate research on L2 writing in its historical context and provide a state of the art view of past achievements and as a prospective critical analysis of what lies ahead in terms of theory research and applications Accordingly the Handbook aims to provide i foundational information on the emergence and subsequent evolution of the field ii state of the art surveys of available theoretical and research basic and applied insights iii overviews of research methods in L2 writing research iv critical reflections on future developments and iv explorations of existing and emerging disciplinary interfaces with other fields of inquiry Disrupting the Center Rebecca Hallman Martini, 2022-04-15 Strategic partnership offers writing centers a framework for responding to disruptive innovations in higher education Through partnership writing centers can simultaneously secure resources and support the practice of tutoring writing in ways that enable moments of resistance where writing consultants and students can tactically challenge the corporate university through their methods of practice Disrupting the Center explicates analyzes and critiques one particular writing center's partnership approach to collaboration with disciplinary faculty and upper administrators across the curriculum Using on site research and critical ethnographic study from one university writing center Rebecca Hallman Martini establishes an innovative cross disciplinary partnership approach to writing instruction in which peer tutoring plays an integral curricular role Case studies detail three partnerships that respond directly to existing or potential disruptive innovations in higher education and showcase important concepts mapping mutual benefit and stakeholder engagement in an online studio hybrid first year writing program partnership in response to online education creating negotiated space to work through ethical issues involved when working with a public private partnership to develop a required extracurricular portfolio project in a business school and building transformational partnerships through establishing a writing in the professions curriculum in the College of Engineering in response to career readiness initiatives Disrupting the Center uses interviews observations focus groups analysis of consultations meetings and shared documents such as annual reports budgets assessment data assignments and syllabi to generate a wide view of how systems work Writing centers are flexible university wide service spaces where students go for one on one and group writing support that can become dynamic spaces for writing pedagogy by disrupting revitalizing and reinventing the epistemic foundations of current rhetoric and composition landscapes and traditional approaches to writing

Mentorship/Methodology Leigh Gruwell, Charles Lesh, 2024-04-22 Mentorship Methodology brings together emerging and established scholars to consider the relationship between mentoring practices and research methodologies in writing studies and related fields Each essay in this edited collection produces a new intellectual space from which to theorize the dynamics of combining mentoring and research in institutions and communities of higher education The contributors consider how methodology informs mentorship how mentorship activates methodology and how to locate the future of the field in these moments of intersection Mentorship through the research and relationships it nourishes creates the future of writing studies or conversely reproduces the past At the juncture where this happens the contributors inquire Where have current arrangements of mentorship methodology taken writing studies Where do these points of intersection exist in performance and practice in theory in research What images of the field do they produce How can scholars better articulate and write about these moments or spaces in which mentorship and methodology collide in productive disciplinary work By making the slash more visible Mentorship Methodology provides significant opportunities to support and cultivate diverse ways of knowing and being in rhetoric and composition both locally and globally The volume will appeal to students and scholars of rhetoric composition and technical and professional communication as well as readers interested in conversations about mentorship and methodology The
