SUBMISSION

READ:
1 Peter 2:13-25

*Submitting yourselves
one to another in the fear of God.*

Ephesians 5:21

Often, when a wife is influenced by demons, she will reject her husband's authority. The words of the husband are despised and rejected. There is an angry reply to every instruction. There is a rejoinder to every bit of advice. I have watched as certain wives became deceived through familiarity.

The same thing happens in churches. Deceived church members rise against God's servant, calling him a tyrant but they do not know that they are totally deceived. Evil spirits of deception are taking hold of them. Jesus said, "Judge not." While on earth, we will never see clearly enough to judge correctly. Churches are full of, critical, fault-finding and judgmental people. One of the highest kinds of deception, of demonic infiltration you can have in the church is to fight against the pastor. Show me a church with critical people and I will show you a church filled with demons.

Authorities in a nation must also be honoured and respected. It is in the rebellious underworld of cities that satanic and demonic activities thrive. Prostitution and armed robbery are examples of the activities of those who stand against authority in any nation. People under demonic control cannot be controlled by pastors, husband or any authority figure. "None could bind him, no not with chains"(Mark 5:3). Is that the description of your life? None can lay hands on you? None can be a father to you? None can be a pastor to you? None can be a husband to you? None can bind you, not even with chains!

Personal Devotional Guide 2015:

Coming of Age in Jewish America Patricia Keer Munro, 2016-05-01 The Jewish practice of bar mitzvah dates back to the twelfth century but this ancient cultural ritual has changed radically since then evolving with the times and adapting to local conditions For many Jewish American families a child's bar mitzvah or bat mitzvah is both a major social event and a symbolic means of asserting the family's ongoing connection to the core values of Judaism Coming of Age in Jewish America takes an inside look at bar and bat mitzvahs in the twenty first century examining how the practices have continued to morph and exploring how they serve as a sometimes shaky bridge between the values of contemporary American culture and Judaic tradition Interviewing over 200 individuals involved in bar and bat mitzvah ceremonies from family members to religious educators to rabbis Patricia Keer Munro presents a candid portrait of the conflicts that often emerge and the negotiations that ensue In the course of her study she charts how this ritual is rife with contradictions it is a private family event and a public community activity and for the child it is both an educational process and a high stakes performance Through detailed observations of Conservative Orthodox Reform and independent congregations in the San Francisco Bay Area Munro draws intriguing broad reaching conclusions about both the current state and likely future of American Judaism In the process she shows not only how American Jews have forged a unique set of bar and bat mitzvah practices but also how these rituals continue to shape a distinctive Jewish American identity

Religious Devotion and the Poetics of Reform George Pati, 2019-02-18 The poetry emanating from the bhakti tradition of devotional love in India has been both a religious expression and a form of resistance to hierarchies of caste gender and colonialism Some scholars have read this art form through the lens of resistance and reform but others have responded that imposing an interpretive framework on these poems fails to appreciate their authentic expressions of devotion This book argues that these declarations of love and piety can simultaneously represent efforts towards emancipation at the spiritual political and social level This book through a close study of Na ini 1911 a Malayalam lyric poem as well as other poems authored by Mah kavi Kum ran n 1873 1924 a low caste Kerala poet demonstrates how n employed a theme of love among humans during the modern period in Kerala that was grounded in the native South Indian bhakti understanding of love of the deity n believed that personal religious freedom comes from devotion to the deity and that love for humans must emanate from love of the deity In showing how devotional religious expression also served as a resistance movement this study provides new perspective on an understudied area of the colonial period Bringing to light an under explored medium in both religious and artistic terms this book will be of great interest to scholars of religious studies Hindu studies and religion and literature as well as academics with an interest in Indian culture
