Box Office How To Sign In:

The Sign in Sidney Brustein's Window Lorraine Hansberry, 2012-02-22 From the award winning author of A Raisin in the Sun comes one of the most electrifying classic masterpieces of the American theater an unforgettable portrait of a man struggling with his individual fate in an age of racial and social injustice Rich and warm and funny beautifully written Los Angeles Times The Sign in Sidney Brustein's Window along with A Raisin in the Sun are milestones in the American theater remarkable not only for their historical value but for their continued ability to engage the imagination and the heart It is drama of such clarity that one may return to it again and again and I expect emerge as deeply moved and each time the more illumined Miss Hansberry I am convinced doesn't know how to create a character who isn't gloriously diverse illuminatingly contradictory heart breakingly alive A personal odyssey of discovery a confrontation with others in the process of which Brustein discovers himself from the Foreword by John Braine With an Introduction by Robert Nemiroff From Box Office to Ballot Box M. Keith Booker, 2007-02-28 Given the complexity and expense of making and distributing a film the process of filmmaking is by its very nature a political process Moreover given the power and persuasiveness of the cinema as a medium film can be a powerful political tool It should thus come as no surprise that film has had a long and extensive engagement with a variety of political topics ranging from the actual mechanics of governance to electoral politics to any number of specific political issues Through a film by film examination of the movies explicitly concerned with American politics and American political issues From Box Office to Ballot Box provides valuable new insights into our culture's perceptions of various political environments and serves as a witness to the cinema's own complex contribution to the media's coverage of and relationship to American politics at large From Box Office to Ballot Box takes as its subject films exploring the electoral process the process of governing and the involvement of the media in both Separate chapters also deal with films related to specific political issues or phenomena that are particularly relevant to the above three categories including labor and class the Cold War the Vietnam War and the other recent conflicts in which the media has played such a large role Specific films discussed include Citizen Kane All the King's Men The Manchurian Candidate All the Presidents Men The Front M A S H JFK Nixon Wag the Dog Three Kings Black Hawk Down The Quiet American The Contender and many more Too Bold for the Box Office Cynthia J. Miller, 2012-08-02 In Too Bold for the Box Office Cynthia J Miller has assembled essays by scholars and filmmakers who examine the unique cinematic form of mockumentary Individually each of these essays looks at a given instance of mockumentary parody and subversion examining the ways in which each calls into question our assumptions pleasures beliefs and even our senses Writing about national film television and new media traditions as diverse as their backgrounds this volume's contributors explore and theorize the workings of mockumentaries as well as the strategies and motivations of the writers and filmmakers who brought them into being Digital Signage Jimmy Schaeffler, 2012-09-10 Digital Signage gives you macro and micro views of the burgeoning digital signage industry Whether you are looking for new
