Spilker, Trudi Wright, 2024-02-06 Music education today requires an approach rooted in care and kindness that coexists alongside the dismantling of systems that fail to serve our communities in higher education But as the essayists in Sound Pedagogy show the structural aspects of music study in higher education present obstacles to caring and kindness like the entrenched master student model a neoliberal individualist and competitive mindset and classical music's white patriarchal roots The editors of this volume curate essays that use a broad definition of care pedagogy one informed by interdisciplinary scholarship and aimed at providing practical strategies for bringing transformative learning and engaged pedagogies to music classrooms The contributors draw from personal experience to address issues including radical kindness through universal design listening to non-human musicality public musicology as a forum for social justice discourse and radical approaches to teaching about race through music Contributors Molly M Breckling William A Everett Kate Galloway Sara Haefeli Eric Hung Stephanie Jensen Moulton Mark Katz Nathan A Langfitt Matteo Magarotto Mary Natvig Frederick A Peterbark Laura Moore Pruett Colleen Renihan Amanda Christina Soto John Spilker Reba A Wissner and Trudi Wright

Sampling Politics M.I. Franklin, 2021-07-28 Sampling has become a predominantly digitalized practice It was popularized with the rise of Rap and Hip Hop as well as ambient music scenes but it has a history stretching back to the earliest days of sound recording and experimental music making around the world Digital networks allow artists to sample music across national borders and cultural traditions with relative ease prompting questions around not only fair use copyright and freedom of expression but also cultural appropriation and copywrongs Based on archival research and musical analysis alongside conversations with artists and their own public reflections Sampling Politics provides ways to listen more closely and hear again music making
