Peoples Pornography Sex And Surveillance On The Chinese Internet:

The Afterglow of Women's Pornography in Post-Digital China K. Jacobs, 2015-06-03 Chinese artists activists and netizens are pioneering a new order of pornographic representation that is in critical dialogue with global entertainment media Jacobs examines the role of sex positive feminists and queer communities to investigate pornography's afterglow a state of crisis and decay within digital culture Routledge Handbook of Sexuality Studies in East Asia Mark McLelland, Vera

Mackie, 2014-09-15 This collection brings together cutting edge work by established and emerging scholars focusing on key societies in the East Asian region China Taiwan Hong Kong Japan North and South Korea Mongolia and Vietnam This scope enables the collection to reflect on the nature of the transformations in constructions of sexuality in highly developed developing and emerging societies and economies Both Japan and China have established traditions of sexuality studies reflecting longstanding indigenous understandings of sex as well as more recent developments which interface with Euro American medical and psychological understandings Authors reflect upon the complex colonial and economic interactions and cultural flows which have affected the East Asian region over the last two centuries They trace local flows of ideas instead of defaulting to Euro American paradigms for sexuality studies Through looking at regional and global exchanges of ideas about sexuality this volume adds considerably to our understanding of the East Asian region and contributes to wider discussions of social transformation modernisation and globalisation It will be essential reading in undergraduate and graduate programs in sexuality studies gender studies women's studies and masculinity studies as well as in anthropology sociology history cultural studies area studies and health sciences East Asian Pornographies and Online Porn Cultures

Katrien Jacobs, Thomas Baudinette, Alexandra Hambleton, 2023-07-31 Pornography's impact on transnational models of media aesthetics and governance has been well documented from a Euro American perspective This book contributes to the field of pornography studies by rethinking the cultural impact of pornography as audio visual and online media from an East Asian perspective It focuses on pornographies made and consumed in and across Japan Korea China and Hong Kong The chapters examine under reported East Asian cultures of pornography not only to uncover phenomena from within this region but also to challenge and fine tune existing academic research networks and paradigms This book proposes that the lived experience of producing and consuming various pornographies throughout East Asia may extend nuance challenge or even affirm the dominant Euro American understandings of pornography that are becoming increasingly axiomatic within pornography studies as an emerging interdisciplinary field of study This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Porn Studies Routledge Handbook of New Media in Asia Larissa Hjorth, Olivia Khoo, 2015-11-06 While a decade ago much of the discussion of new media in Asia was couched in Occidental notions of Asia as a default setting for technology in the future today we are seeing a much more complex picture of contesting new media practices and production As new media becomes increasingly an everyday reality for young and old across Asia through smartphones and associated devices boundaries between art new media and the everyday are transformed This Handbook addresses the historical social cultural political philosophical artistic and economic dimensions of the region s new media Through an interdisciplinary revision of both new media and Asia the contributors provide new insights into the complex and contesting terrains of both notions The Routledge Handbook of New Media in Asia will be the definitive publication for readers interested in comprehending all the various aspects of new media in Asia It provides an authoritative up to date intellectually broad conceptually cutting edge guide to the important aspects of new media in the region as the first point of consultation for researchers advanced level undergraduate and postgraduate students in fields of new media and Asian studies
