Percy Bysshe Shelley As a Philosopher and Reformer Charles Sotheran, 2015-06-03 Sad as it is to contemplate any human being in his agony making use of such language to another and however much we may sympathize with the poet yet we cannot but have inwardly a feeling of rejoicing for if it had not been for this unheard of villainy we should probably never have had the other magnificent poetry and prose of Percy Bysshe Shelley composed during his self imposed ostracism and which furnish such glorious thoughts for the philosopher and keen trenchant weapons for the reformer
