Performing Africa Thomas Riccio, 2007 Original Scholarly Monograph African Culture and Global Politics Toyin Falola, Danielle Sanchez, 2014-01-10 This volume attempts to insert itself within the larger discussion of Africa in the twenty first century especially within the realm of world politics Despite the underwhelming amount of attention given to Africa s role in international politics in popular news sources it is evident that Africa has a consistent record of participating in world politics one that pre dates colonization and continues today In continuance of this legacy of active participation in global political exchanges Africans today can be heard in dialogues that span the world and their roles are impossible to replace by other entities It is evident that a vastly different Africa exists than ones that bolster images of starvation corruption and compliance The essays in this volume center on Africa and Africans participating in international political discourses but with an emphasis on various forms of expression and philosophies as these factors heavily influence Africa s role as a participant in global politics The reader will find a variety of essays that permeate surface discussions of politics and political activism by inserting African culture rhetoric philosophies into the larger discussion of international politics and Africa s role in worldwide political social and economic debates Healing Collective Trauma Using Sociodrama and Drama Therapy

African Theatre and Politics: The evolution of theatre in Ethiopia, Tanzania and Zimbabwe Jane Plastow, 2023-01-30 This study the first book length treatment of its subject draws on a large base of elusive material and on extensive field research It is the result of the author's wide experience of teaching and producing theatre in Africa and of her fascination with the ways in which traditional performance forms have interacted with or have resisted non indigenous modes of dramatic representation in the process of evolving into the vital theatres of the present day A comparative historical study is offered of the three national cultures of Ethiopia Tanganyika Tanzania and Rhodesia Zimbabwe Not only scripted drama is treated but also theatre in the sense of the broader range of performance arts such as dance and song The development of theatre and drama is seen against the background of centuries of cultural evolution and interaction from pre colonial times through phases of African and European imperialism to the liberation struggles and newly won independence of the present The seminal relationship between theatre society and politics is thus a central focus Topics covered include the function in theatre of vernacular and colonial languages performance forms under feudal communalist and socialist regimes cultural militancy and political critique the relationship of theatre to social elites and to the peasant class state control funding and censorship racism and separate development in the performing arts contemporary performance structures amateur professional community and university theatre Due attention is paid to prominent dramatists theatre groups and theatre directors and the author offers new insight into African perceptions of the role of the artist in the theatre as well as dealing with the important subject of gender roles in drama in performance ritual and in theatre practice The book is illustrated with contemporary photographs Explorations in Southern African Drama, Theatre and Performance Patrick J.

Ebewo, 2017-05-11 In spite of the rich repertoire of artistic traditions in Southern Africa particularly in the areas of drama theatre and performance there seems to be a lack of a corresponding robust academic engagement with these subjects While it can be said that some of the racial groups in the region have received substantial attention in terms of scholarly discussions of their drama and theatre performances the same cannot be said of the black African racial group As such this collection of thirteen chapters represents a compendium of critical and intellectual discourses on black African drama theatre and performance in Botswana Lesotho South Africa and Swaziland The topics covered in the book include amongst others ritual practices interventionist approaches to drama textual analyses and the funeral rites viewed as performance of the South African liberation icon Nelson Mandela The discussions are rooted mainly using African paradigms that are relevant to the context of African cultural production The contributions here add to the aggregate knowledge economy of Southern Africa promote research and publication and provide reading materials for university students specialising in the performing arts As such the book will appeal to academics theatre scholars cultural workers and arts administrators arts practitioners and entrepreneurs the tourism industry arts educators and development communication experts

African Theatres and Performances Osita Okagbue, 2013-05-13 African Theatres Performances looks at four specific performance forms in Africa and uses this to question the tendency to employ western frames of reference to analyze and appreciate theatrical performance The book examines masquerade theatre in Eastern Nigeria the trance and possession ritual theatre of the Hausa of Northern Nigeria the musical and oral tradition of the Mandinka of Senegal comedy and satire of the Bamana in Mali Osita Okagbue describes each performance in detail and discusses how each is made who it is made by and for and considers the relationship between maker and viewer and the social functions of performance and theatre in African societies The discussions are based on first hand observation and interviews with performers and spectators African Theatres Performances gives a fascinating account of these practices carefully tracing the ways in which performances and theatres are unique and expressive of their cultural context

Theatre in Transformation Wolfgang Schneider, Lebogang L. Nawa, 2019-01-23 Are artists seismographs during processes of transformation Is theatre a mirror of society And how does it influence society offstage To address these questions this collection brings together analyses of cultural policy in post apartheid South Africa and actors of the performing arts discussing political theatre and cultural activism Case studies grant inside views of the State Theatre in Pretoria the Market Theatre in Johannesburg and the Baxter Theatre in Cape Town followed by a documentation of panel discussions on the Soweto Theatre The texts collected here bring to the surface new faces and voices who advance the performing arts with their images and lexicons revolving around topics such as patriarchy femicide and xenophobia

African Theatre in Performance Dele Layiwola, 2013-11-05 In this lively and varied tribute to Martin Banham Layiwola has assembled critical commentaries and two plays which focus primarily on Nigerian theatre both traditional and contemporary Dele Layiwola Dapo Adelugba and Sonny Oti trace the beginnings of the School of Drama in 1960 at the University of Ibadan Nigeria where Martin Banham played a key and influential role in the growth of thriving Nigerian theatre repertoire and simultaneously encouraging the creation of a new theatre based on traditional Nigerian theatre forms This comparative approach is taken up in Dele Layiwola's study of ritual and drama in the context of various traditions worldwide while Oyin Ogunba presents a lucid picture of the complex use of theatre space in Yoruba ritual dramadar drama Harsh everyday realities both physical and political are graphically demonstrated by Robert McClaren Zimbabwe and Oga Steve Abah Nigeria who both show surprising and alarming links between extreme actual experiences and theatre creation and performance The texts of the two plays When Criminals Turn Judges by Ola Rotimi The Hand that Feeds the King by Wale Ogunyemi are followed by Austin O Asagba's study of oral tradition and text in plays by Osofisan and Agbeyegbe and Frances Harding's study on power language and imagery in Wole Soyinka's plays
