Performing The Faith Bonhoeffer And The Practice Of Nonviolence:

Performing the Faith Stanley Hauerwas, 2004-04-01 September 11 Afghanistan Iraq more than ever this is a time for the church to be taking up the question of what as Christians our response to violence should be In Performing the Faith Stanley Hauerwas revisits the familiar territory of political nonviolence through discussion of the writings of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Christian ethicist theologian and by some definitions martyr This book is an intriguing commentary on Bonhoeffer's bold claim that if our common life rests on lies and injustice we cannot be a community of peace Pastors seminarians and those interested in Christian ethics are among the many who will be interested in this new word from an unwavering faithful voice

Bonhoeffer's Reception of Luther Michael P. DeJonge, 2017-02-09 In Dietrich Bonhoeffer's writings Martin Luther is ubiquitous Too often however Bonhoeffer's Lutheranism has been set aside with much less argumentative work than is appropriate in light of his sustained engagement with Luther As a result Luther remains a largely untouched hermeneutic key in Bonhoeffer interpretation In Bonhoeffer's Reception of Luther Michael P DeJonge presents Bonhoeffer's Lutheran theology of justification focused on the interpersonal presence of Christ in word sacrament and church The bridge between this theology and Bonhoeffer's ethical political reflections is his two kingdoms thinking Arguing that the widespread failure to connect Bonhoeffer with the Lutheran two kingdoms tradition has presented a serious obstacle in interpretation DeJonge shows how this tradition informs Bonhoeffer's reflections on war and peace as well as his understanding of resistance to political authority In all of this DeJonge argues that an appreciation of Luther's ubiquity in Bonhoeffer's corpus sheds light on his thinking lends it coherence and makes sense of otherwise difficult interpretive problems What might otherwise appear as disparate even contradictory moments or themes in Bonhoeffer's theology can often be read in terms of a consistent commitment to a basic Lutheran theological framework deployed according to dramatically changing circumstances

The Virtue of Bonhoeffer's Ethics Jennifer Moberly, 2013-06-19 Does Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Ethics have any affinities with what we have now come to call virtue ethics If so what is the relationship between those affinities and the more widely recognized influence of Karl Barth Moberly seeks to answer these questions through close analysis of the Ethics and engagement with other interpreters of Bonhoeffer while discussing the nature of virtue ethics in a Christian context The answers may be surprising but they are certainly rewarding for anyone wanting to better understand Bonhoeffer and to see how his work could be helpful for current ethical debates

Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Ethics of Formation Ryan Huber, 2020-05-19 Dietrich Bonhoeffer is many things to many people committed pacifist reluctant revolutionary Protestant saint but in Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Ethics of Formation Ryan Huber argues that Bonhoeffer should be engaged as a Christian ethicist of formation Huber demonstrates that formation lies at the heart of Bonhoeffer's ethical project and personal story providing a third way between virtue and character ethics in contemporary Christian thought concerned with moral growth in contemporary theology that rejects both the Enlightenment appeal to a universal rationality and the liberal assumption of an immediate religious experience common to all humanity. The movement initially began in the 1980s with its association to Yale Divinity School Theologians such as Hans Frei, Paul Holmer, David Kelsey, and George Lindbeck, who were influential and were significantly influenced by theologians such as Karl Barth, Clifford Geertz, and Ludwig Wittgenstein. Postliberalism uses a narrative approach to theology such as developed by Hans Frei and argues that all thought and experience is historically and socially mediated. Michener provides the reader with an accessible introductory overview of the origins, current thought, potential problems, and future possibilities of postliberal theology. The basic philosophical and theological background are briefly discussed along with the seminal and predominant theologians identified with the movement. Michener shows how postliberalism emerges from the context of the postmodern critique of Enlightenment rationalism and empiricism. Postliberal theology is extremely critical of classical liberal theology rather than an advancement of its agenda. Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Christian Humanism Jens Zimmermann, 2019. An innovative study of the theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer which elucidates that his work teaches and represents a Christian humanism that is also present in the wider Christian tradition.

Hauerwas the Peacemaker? Nathan Scot Hosler, 2020-04-14. War has been abolished in Christ is a strong claim by theologian Stanley Hauerwas. Wars, however, continue to rage and historic numbers of people are displaced globally. Despite critics' assessments that Hauerwas contributes to Christians' disengaging, his work provides certain tools for the work of peacebuilding. In this work, Hauerwas's contribution to peacemaking as a part of his ecclesiology and broader theological/ethical work will be assessed. Hauerwas's peacemaking within his work stands within the context of ecclesiology and related themes of witness and Christology. The possibilities of his work on peacemaking to extend to peacebuilding practice and foreign policy formation are explored, and a critique is leveled regarding his engagement with racial justice. Additionally, certain practices of reading in theology and training in this language are extrapolated to engage the task of policy formation and analysis in contexts where religion is an active factor. This study concludes that Hauerwas's theological ethics of peacemaking makes a valuable contribution but must be extended into specific practices. Singing the Ethos of God Brian Brock, 2007-04-02. Noting that academic biblical scholars and Christian ethicists have been methodologically estranged for some decades now, Brian Brock seeks to reframe the whole Bible and ethics discussion in terms of this question: What role does the Bible play in God's generation of a holy people, and how do we participate in that regeneration? Brock first examines various major contemporary thinkers on the Bible and Christian ethics, including John Howard Yoder, Brevard Childs, John Webster, and Dietrich Bonhoeffer. He then undertakes major discussions of Augustine and Martin Luther, unpacking their interpretation of the Psalms. Finally, Brock articulates the processes of renewal in God's people. His close study of a few individual psalms shows how we enter the world of praise in which all human life is comprehended within God's work and is thus renewed. Immersion in the exegetical tradition of the Christian faith, Brock argues, must be the heart and soul of theology and ethics.

Horizons in Hermeneutics Stanley E. Porter, Matthew Malcolm, 2013-04-25 From essays that focus on the horizon of the text through to essays that consider the horizon of the twenty first century church this collection invites reflection on the illumination that hermeneutical awareness brings to biblical interpretation This Festschrift in honor of Anthony C Thiselton aims to consider exemplify and build upon his insights in philosophical hermeneutics and biblical studies particularly in relation to Paul and his writings

Public Faith in Action Miroslav Volf, Ryan McAnnally-Linz, 2017-09-19 Celebrated Theologian Offers Wisdom for Civic Engagement Christian citizens have a responsibility to make political and ethical judgments in light of their faith and to participate in the public lives of their communities from their local neighborhoods to the national scene But it can be difficult to discern who to vote for which policies to support and how to respond to the social and cultural trends of our time This nonpartisan handbook offers Christians practical guidance for thinking through complicated public issues and faithfully following Jesus as citizens of their countries The book focuses on enduring Christian commitments that should guide readers in their judgments and encourages legitimate debate among Christians over how to live out core values The book also includes lists of resources for further reflection in each chapter and room for debate questions to consider

Pacifism, Just War, and Tyrannicide David M. Gides, 2012-03-02 Dietrich Bonhoeffer s perplexing and controversial shift from admitted pacifism to tyrannicide has been the source of scholarly and popular inspiration and criticism How could an admitted Christian pacifist be involved in a plot to assassinate a political figure Is there a way to understand and explain this phenomenon comprehensive enough to encompass all relevant data One that takes into account the nuances of Bonhoeffer s theology and all of the elements of his complex historical and personal contexts This study attempts to offer an explanation by linking Bonhoeffer s political thinking and action with his understanding of the church world relationship and by evaluating the changes in that thought action dyad as his life progressed What emerges is a portrait of a bold and visionary thinker and political agent whose church world theology while discontinuous is consistent enough to be authentic and yet flexible enough to meet the extraordinary challenges presented by Nazism and its intrusion into the churches Gides suggests that it is actually Bonhoeffer s malleable church world thinking that ultimately distinguishes him from his theological and ecclesial contemporaries and even from the mass of German church persons and citizenry it allowed him to confront evil by reaching beyond the constraints of traditional Lutheran thinking

Theology as Performance Philip Stoltzfus, 2006-06-05 Theology as Performance breaks new ground in the growing conversation between modern theology and philosophical aesthetics Stoltzfus proposes that significant moments in the Western development of the concept of God in particular as represented in the figures of Friedrich Schleiermacher Karl Barth and Ludwig Wittgenstein have been deeply influenced by concepts and approaches borrowed from the discipline of musical aesthetics Each thinker develops fundamentally different ways of writing about God that have in significant respects been derived from each one's reading and writing about music The aesthetic implications of Schleiermacher's so-called subjectivist turn Barth's objectivist reaction and Wittgenstein's language game pragmatism can thus be fully understood only by attending to the musical culture and distinctly musicological discourses that gave rise to them Stoltzfus constructs two trajectories of thought with which to trace theological reflection upon music throughout the pre-modern period the traditions of Orpheus and Pythagoras Schleiermacher's aesthetic approach then becomes a modern representative of the Orpheus trajectory and Barth's approach a representative of the Pythagoras trajectory Stoltzfus interprets Wittgenstein as putting forward a radical critique of these trajectories and pointing toward a third performative theological aesthetic method Theology as Performance offers a provocative rethinking of the aesthetic roots of modern theology

Becoming a Christian in Christendom Jason A. Mahn, 2016-11-01 How might one live the Christian faith within a culture that idealizes and privileges Christianity while also relativizing it rendering it redundant and innocuous Arguing for a reconceptualization of the theology of the cross and radical communal practices this book brings together two clusters of critics of Christian acculturation and accommodation 1 Lutherans such as Kierkegaard and Bonhoeffer who lift up radical discipleship against the propensity toward cheap grace and 2 various Anti Constantinians including neo monastic communities who resists the church s collusion with power politics symbolized by the conversion of Constantine in the early fourth century Drawing on these diverse resources author Jason Mahn explores some pervasive dangers of America s new Christendom its accommodation to an exploitative economy that cheapens the meaning of grace its endorsement of political liberalism within which the church becomes another special interest group its justification of war and other forms of necessary violence and its self defeating lip service to religious inclusivity Mahn provocatively imagines alternatives to conventional Christianity ones whereby the church embodies an alternative politic where it commits to cruciform non violence appreciates gifts by giving them away and knows its boundaries well enough to learn from those on the other side

The Bible, Justice, and Public Theology

David J. Neville, 2014-10-09 Public theology is a developing field of discourse concerned to address matters of pressing public concern in theological perspective for the common good. Themes of ecology, poverty, human rights, and especially justice feature prominently in its discourse. Although justice is also a prominent theme in the Bible, there is no single perspective on what constitutes justice in the Bible and no single view on how biblical perspectives on justice should contribute to contemporary discussion regarding the meaning and implementation of justice. Informed and inspired by Christopher Marshall's landmark work on Compassionate Justice (Cascade Books, 2012) in dialogue with Jesus' parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son, this collection of studies addresses various interrelations between the Bible, justice, and public theology. Marshall himself proposes that certain parables of Jesus are paradigmatic for public theology, and some contributors respond to different dimensions of his treatment of the parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son in terms of restorative justice. Other contributors, by contrast, examine broader related concerns such as justice in biblical, theological, and philosophical perspective; the hermeneutics of engagement for justice; the relation between feminist theology and restorative justice; biblical resources for public theology; and popular culture as both a conversation partner with and a medium for public theology.
