Perseverance In Gratitude A Socio Rhetorical Commentary On The Epistle To The Hebrews:

Perseverance in Gratitude David A. deSilva, 2000-03-13 This commentary is the first to fully apply the resources of socio rhetorical analysis to Hebrews Insights into the cultural and social world of the audience are combined with analysis of the author s rhetorical strategy and ideology to create a rich three dimensional reading that helps unravel key issues in the interpretation of the epistle David deSilva s reflections on application concluding each section also make his commentary valuable to seminarians and pastors seeking to make Hebrews relevant to today s world Jewish-Christian Relations

Abel Mordechai Bibliowicz, 2019-03-01 I am in fundamental agreement with Bibliowicz s thesis that the anti Jewish polemic in the New Testament reflects debates between Jewish and Gentile followers of Jesus not a polemic between Christians and Jews and with the implications which he has drawn for Christian theology May this book find a wide readership among people devoted to the cause of the healing of memories between Jews and Christians Peter C Phan Professor Chair of Catholic Social Thought Georgetown University President of the Catholic Theological Society of America Standing on a brilliant and insightful reconstruction of Paul and on a quite shocking but perhaps compelling reading of Mark the author offers a number of original and in some cases quite compelling theoretical reconstructions of the context and purposes of early Christian texts a work of sublime moral passion David P Gushee Distinguished University Professor of Christian Ethics and Director Center for Theology and Public Life Mercer University President elect American Academy of Religion Author of Kingdom Ethics Following Jesus in Contemporary Context An intrepid excursion into the Christian discourse The quest of an intellectual a humanist Interesting and in fact overwhelming A timely and honest engagement of the Christian texts authors and scholars by a Jewish intellectual Burton L Mack Professor of Early Christianity Claremont School of Theology California author of A Myth of Innocence Mark and Christian Origins There is great merit to Bibliowicz s approach I highly recommend this book for anyone interested in the Jewish Christian dialogue Scholars may disagree with a number of Bibliowicz conclusions as I do with his interpretation of the Epistle to the Hebrews But even in disagreeing scholars in the field of Jewish Christian studies will learn new ways of challenging and thinking about old presumptions Eugene J Fisher Distinguished Professor of Theology Saint Leo University Former staff person for Catholic Jewish relations for the U S Conference of Catholic Bishops Consultor to the Vatican Commission for Religious Relations with the Jews member of the International Catholic Jewish Liaison Committee representing the Holy See An important work Sensitive and deeply researched In the deepest sense a profound theological work Clark M Williamson Professor Christian Theological Seminary Indiana author of Way of Blessing Way of Life A Christian Theology I very much appreciated the depth and scope of the scholarship accompanied by the kind and humble spirit of the author it may also prove to be one of the formidable and formative scholarly contributions of the decade for both biblical and historical scholars Michael Thompson Professor Religious Studies Oklahoma State University In methodical and precise fashion Bibliowicz takes the reader through the

The Letter to the Hebrews in Social-Scientific Perspective David A. deSilva, 2012-06-20 A lot of mystery surrounds the book of Hebrews especially regarding its authorship date and audience But by asking the right kind of questions one can move beyond the impasses typical of historical investigation In this volume David deSilva explores Hebrews through a social scientific lens asking one of the most important questions when interpreting letters and sermons What was going on in the community to occasion such a response DeSilva looks for clues concerning the anonymous author his education level the influence of the Greek environment and his perception of his own authority In addition by forming a social profile of the audience that includes location ethnicity and class status deSilva brings to light the author s aims of helping protect Christian converts from persecution and social shame This book not only helps the sermon to the Hebrews take on flesh and blood for contemporary readers it also expands the readers tools for asking fresh questions and exploring new dimensions in biblical texts Introducing Romans Richard N. Longenecker, 2011-03-25 Paul's Letter to the Romans has proven to be a particular challenge for commentators with its many highly significant interpretive issues often leading to tortuous convolutions and even dead ends in their understanding of the letter Here Richard N Longenecker takes a comprehensive look at the complex backdrop of Paul's letter and carefully unpacks a number of critical issues including Authorship integrity occasion date addressees and purpose Important recent interpretive approaches Greco Roman oral rhetorical and epistolary conventions Jewish and Jewish Christian thematic and rhetorical features The establishing of the letter's Greek text The letter's main focus structure and argument Invitation to the New Testament Ben Witherington III, 2017 Includes bibliographical references and index Desiring Martyrs Harry O. Maier, Katharina Waldner, 2020-12-16 Martyrs create space and time through the actions they take the fate they suffer the stories they prompt the cultural narratives against which they take place and the retelling of their tales in different places and contexts The title Desiring Martyrs is meant in two senses First it refers to protagonists and antagonists of the martyrdom narratives who as literary characters seek martyrs and the way they inscribe certain kinds of cultural and social desire Second it describes the later celebration of martyrs via narrative martyrdom acts monuments inscriptions martyria liturgical commemoration pilgrimage etc Here there is a cultural desire to tell or remember a particular kind of story about the past that serves particular communal interests and goals By applying the spatial turn to these ancient texts the volume seeks to advance a still nascent social geographical understanding of emergent Christian and Jewish martyrdom It explores how martyr narratives engage pre-existing time space configurations to result in new appropriations of earlier traditions The Rhetoric of the New Testament Duane Frederick Watson, 2006 A new comprehensive bibliography of books and articles on the rhetoric of the New Testament published since AD 1500 The bibliography is arranged by categories which include Jewish heritage invention arrangement style hermeneutics with specific listings for each book of the NT It is prefaced with a select bibliography of primary and secondary sources on classical and modern rhetoric An invaluable research tool Orthodoxy and Orthopraxis Douglas R. Cullum, J. Richard Middleton, 2020-04-28 These essays on matters biblical theological historical and beyond pay tribute to the multidisciplinary impact of Paul Livermore founding faculty member and Professor Emeritus of Northeastern Seminary at Roberts Wesleyan College Rochester NY Mid-America Journal of Theology, 2005 Autobiographical Biblical Criticism Ingrid R. Kitzberger, 2002 This volume offers a dozen essays theoretical and practical showing why and how the new ABC in biblical studies can be applied Divine Christology in the Epistle to the Hebrews Nick Brennan, 2021-09-23 Nick Brennan investigates the depiction of the Son's divine nature in the Epistle to the Hebrews despite little attention being directly given to the Son's divinity in recent study of Hebrews Brennan argues that not only is the Son depicted as divine in the Epistle but that this depiction ranges outside the early chapters in which it is most often noted and is theologically relevant to the pattern of the Author's argument Beginning with a survey of the state of contemporary scholarship on the Son's divinity in Hebrews and a discussion of the issues connected to predicating divinity of the Son in the Epistle Brennan analyses the application of Old Testament texts to the Son which in their original context refer to God 1 6 10 12 and demonstrates how the Pastor not only affirms the Son's divinity but also the significance of his exaltation as God He then discusses how Heb 3 3 4 witnesses to the divinity of the Son in Hebrews explores debates on the relation of the Son's indestructible life Heb 7 16 to his divinity and demonstrates how two key concepts in Hebrews covenant and sonship reinforce the Son's divinity Brennan thus concludes that the Epistle not only portrays the Son as God but does so in a manner which is a pervasive aspect of its thought and is theologically salient to many features of the Epistle's argument The Queer Bible Commentary Deryn Guest, 2006 A uniquely comprehensive volume of queer theology that covers every book of both testaments It introduces students to a range of hermeneutical principles and strategies employed in queer interpretations of biblical texts

Temporal Oppositions as Hermeneutical Categories in the Epistle to the Hebrews Antonio Portalatín, 2006 This study develops the thesis that the Epistle to the Hebrews uses temporal oppositions as an important literary and theological device within its discourse It provides a detailed analysis on the lexical field of time and the temporal lines of sense in the Epistle In addition to the traditional historical literary methods the author applies elements from modern linguistics reader response theory and hermeneutics By using temporal contrasts this Epistle obtains a clear delineation of the present eschatological status of the Christian community and creates a forceful exhortation to live according to our stance in history Andrews University Seminary Studies Andrews University. Seventh-Day Adventist Theological Seminary, 2001 Festschrift F. García Martínez Hans Ausloos, Bénédicte Lemmelijn, Marc Vervenne, 2008 Florilegium Lovaniense Studies in Septuagint and Textual Criticism in Honour of Florentino Garcia Martinez is intended for a special present initiated by his Leuven collegae proximi on the occasion of Professor Garcia Martinez retirement as a research professor in the Biblical Studies Research Department of the Faculty of Theology at the University of Leuven K U Leuven Like the personality of the celebrated scholar himself the composition of his Festschrift has become a most colourful undertaking After the editor's presentation of the rich biography and the huge bibliography of Florentino Garcia Martinez M Vervenne aims at evoking Florentino's personality throughout his life and work Following this introduction some thirty contributions transform the Festschrift into a wide ranging collection of high quality approaches to a number of diverse topics thus mirroring the wide spectrum of both Florentino's and their own work The following scholars have contributed to this collection H Ausloos B Lemmelijn J M Auwers R Bieringer E Bons D Buchner R Ceulemans J Cook H Debel D De Crom C Dogniez G Dorival K Hauspie M S Ibita J Joosten M Karrer U Schmid M Sigismund W Kraus M Labahn J Lust T Muraoka A Pietersma E Puech J S Rey A Schenker R Sollamo J Treballe Barrera A van der Kooij P Van Hecke H van Rooy E Verbeke Each contribution has somehow to do with Textual Criticism and or Septuagint Studies In addition they echo the aspects and details of the interest and work of each individual scholar The editors sincerely hope that all these particular shades of colours might form together a wonderful rainbow reflecting the contributors and editors admiration respect and friendship for Professor Florentino Garcia Martinez Enabling Fidelity to God Jason A. Whitlark,2008 The primary focus of this book is to demonstrate how Hebrews represents in view of its historical and religious context human fidelity to God Thus the basic thesis is twofold First with regard to the divine human relationship in the ancient Mediterranean world the belief in the reciprocity rationale was one primary dynamic for establishing fidelity to a relationship and has been applied by some scholars such as David deSilva to Hebrews as the way to understand its strategy for creating perseverance A major problem with the application of this dynamic is that a common optimistic anthropological assumption is associated with the various reciprocity systems in the ancient world both Jewish and pagan This assumption is required if reciprocity is to be effective for establishing ongoing fidelity Second there was however a middle Judaic stream that can be traced from the period of the exile which held to a pessimistic anthropology This anthropological assumption crippled the perceived success of reciprocity to secure fidelity Thus the solution to God s people s inability to remain faithful was an act of God that transformed the human condition and enabled faithfulness to the relationship The argument of this book is that Hebrews with its emphasis upon the inauguration of the new covenant by Jesus high priestly ministry belongs to this latter stream of thought in understanding how fidelity is secured between God and his people Hebrews thus implicitly rejects the rationale of reciprocity for fidelity The implications of this offers a fresh perspective on the soteriology of Hebrews The Face of New Testament Studies Scot McKnight,Grant R. Osborne,2004 Since 1970 there have been far reaching changes in the way the New Testament is studied This text provides detailed overviews on what has been happening in this area over the last 30 years Journal of Biblical Literature ,2007 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,2000 The Bible and the Dead Sea Scrolls: The scrolls and Christian origins James H. Charlesworth,2006 The recovery of 800 documents in the eleven caves on the northwest shores of the Dead Sea is one of the most sensational archeological discoveries in the Holy Land to date These three volumes the very best of critical scholarship demonstrate in detail how the scrolls have revolutionized our knowledge of the text of the Bible the character of Second Temple Judaism and the Jewish beginnings of Christianity
