Instructed and Instructive Actions Michael Lynch,Oskar Lindwall,2023-11-30 The contributors to this volume take up the theme of instructed and instructive actions Harold Garfinkel the founder of ethnomethodology initiated the study of instructed actions as a way to elucidate the embodied production of social order in real time Studies of instructions and the actions of following them provide empirical content to the classical theoretical issue of how rules norms and other normative guidelines are conveyed understood and used for producing social actions and structures The studies in this volume address novel technologies of instructed action and non obvious ways in which ordinary actions turn out to be instructive for participants in immediate situations of action and interaction In some cases the studies address specialized practical artistic and recreational activities and in others they address commonplace modes of action and interaction In all cases they focus on how the manifest organization of specific activities is organized with and without explicitly formulated instructions This book will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in ethnomethodological approaches to research by contributing to understandings of how specific actions are instructed and instructive in the circumstances in which they are produced Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
