Consumer Barbara Mueller, 2008 Communicating with the Multicultural Consumer highlights demographic changes impacting the consumer marketplace in the United States. Growing multiculturalism creates both new opportunities for marketers as well as new challenges. With a balance of theoretical and practical perspectives, this text explores how to develop successful campaigns targeting Hispanic Americans, African Americans, and Asian Americans. Complete with current examples and case studies, it addresses the key issues that must be kept in mind when creating effective communications programs for ethnic consumers, from marketing mix elements to cultural norms and values. Communicating with the Multicultural Consumer is an ideal text for advanced undergraduate and graduate students in specialized courses dealing with ethnic advertising or marketing. It is also an effective supplementary text for introductory advertising, marketing, or mass communication courses and would be useful to advertising practitioners, whether on the client side or within the advertising agency.

Turn Your Talents Into Profits Darcie Sanders, Martha M. Bullen, 1998. There seems to be no dearth of suggestions for making money at home as the growing number of books devoted to the topic proves. But how many of these ideas are practical and creative at the same time? The experienced team of Sanders and Bullen not only describes more than 100 of the more unusual business vocations but also interviews quite a few practitioners and lists specific resources to consult. Each entry includes a lengthy explanation of the job and its duties and responsibilities along with a top tip. e.g. for aspiring dog or cat breeders, it is suggested as an adjunct to other pet-related businesses, not as a solo venture getting started and the going rate. Sure to provoke chuckles are some of the recommendations, albeit all bona fide, such as a garden goosewear designer, yes, for concrete birds, and a beekeeper, no stings in this thought. Good information, well presented. Wallace's Farm and Dairy, 1928.
