Reviewing Culture Online Maarit Jaakkola, 2021-12-02 This book examines how ordinary users review cultural products online, ranging from books to films and other art objects to consumer products. The book maps different communities in institutional and non-institutional settings which intersect with the genre of review, especially in the social web where reviewing is conducted on platforms such as Instagram, YouTube, and Vimeo. The book drawing on the key concepts of cultural intermediation, platformized cultural production, and post-professionalism, looks at user-generated content in lifestyle communities beyond the binary of professional and amateur production.
