The Making of Lawyers' Careers Robert L. Nelson,Bryant G. Garth,Ronit Dinovitzer,Joyce S. Sterling,David B. Wilkins,Meghan Dawe,Ethan Michelson,2023-10-03 How do hierarchies of race class gender and law school status condition the career trajectories of lawyers And how do individual lawyers strategically navigate the constraints and opportunities of their environments Where do they find professional satisfaction This book offers an unprecedented account of opportunity structures and social stratification within the early 21st century American legal profession combining unique longitudinal survey data with interviews storytelling and insights from social theory Starting in 2000 the authors collected over 10 000 survey responses from more than 5 000 lawyers following these lawyers through the first twenty years of their careers They also conducted in depth interviews with more than 200 lawyers They contextualize their findings through attention to the features of a market driven legal profession in particular the growth in recent decades of the private sector relative to the public sector and corresponding disparities in earnings and status between these different segments The analysis in this book reveals a legal profession that is highly stratified Although individual lawyers exercise agency and often find satisfaction in their work there are deep divisions within the profession by client type and practice setting and women and attorneys of color face discrimination and persistent barriers to advancement The careers of lawyers both reflect and reproduce inequalities in law and society writ large The Best 384 Colleges, 2019 Edition The Princeton Review, Robert Franek, 2018-09-18 Make sure you re preparing with the most up to date materials Look for The Princeton Review s newest edition of this book The Best 385 Colleges 2020 Edition ISBN 9780525568421 on sale August 2019 Publisher s Note Products purchased from third party sellers are not guaranteed by the publisher for quality or authenticity and may not include access to online tests or materials included with the original product

Breaking Ranks Colin Diver, 2022-04-12 Some colleges will do anything to improve their national ranking That can be bad for their students and for higher education Since U S News World Report first published a college ranking in 1983 the rankings industry has become a self appointed judge declaring winners and losers among America s colleges and universities In this revealing account Colin Diver shows how popular rankings have induced college applicants to focus solely on pedigree and prestige while tempting educators to sacrifice academic integrity for short term competitive advantage By forcing colleges into standardized best college hierarchies he argues rankings have threatened the institutional diversity intellectual rigor and social mobility that is the genius of American higher education As a former university administrator who refused to play the game Diver leads his readers on an engaging journey through the mysteries of college rankings admissions financial aid spending policies and academic practices He explains how most dominant college rankings perpetuate views of higher education as a purely consumer good susceptible to unidimensional measures of brand value and prestige Many rankings he asserts also undermine the moral authority of higher education by encouraging various forms of distorted behavior misrepresentation and outright cheating by ranked institutions The recent Varsity Blues admissions scandal for example happened in part because affluent parents wanted to get their children into elite schools by any means necessary Explaining what is most useful and important in evaluating colleges Diver offers both college applicants and educators a guide to pursuing their highest academic goals freed from the siren song of the best college illusion Ultimately he reveals how to break ranks with a rankings industry that misleads its consumers undermines academic values and perpetuates social inequality
