that he actually enjoys crafts and the flash cards that make reviewing the sounds he's learned easy to do no matter where we are. We have laminated the flash cards with each packet and keep them handy for waiting rooms, long car rides, and restaurants and have enjoyed making card games of our own with them to help him review. Thank you for such a great resource. It's that time you've found your reading curriculum because it was recommended to you by almost every other homeschooler you have run across. It's all included in one beautiful, not so little book with this huge title: Teach Your Child to Read in 100 Easy Lessons. You've even skimmed through the first few pages and you're just itching to try it all out with your child sitting in your lap reading through the sounds with you. Here's the only catch: You had hoped to include a few complimentary crafts for your beginning reader and maybe a few follow-ups along with Siegfried Engelmann's valuable reading instruction. You are aware already that repetition for small ones is vital and although much repetition is built into Teach Your Child to Read, there is always room for more, especially when it can be an engaging activity outside of the book itself. This is the whole reason I created supplementary printables myself. I wanted crafts, I wanted extra hands-on activities, and heck, I even wanted worksheets that showed my child how to write the letters as recommended at the end of each lesson without having to create the letters myself by hand on a piece of writing paper. So here I am with printable packets created, and my middle child is ready to begin reading. In fact, she has already completed the first 5 lessons. So it is time for us to begin my first supplemental phonics packet: Phonics Games and Activities for the Extended Code Tita Beavan, 1978.

Using Phonics Johanna Myer, 1999-01-01 Phonic Books Dandelion Readers Reading and Writing Activities Set 2 Units 11-20 (Two-letter Spellings Sh, Ch, Th, Ng, Qu, Wh, -ed, -ing, Le) Phonic Books, 2019-04-30. Accompanying photocopiable activities covering word building, writing, blending, and games for Phonic Books Dandelion Readers Set 2 Units 11-20 Chips for Lunch two-letter spellings sh ch th ng qu wh ed ing le. Phonics Practice, 2019.
