Williams, 2025-04-08 This New York Times Notable Book recounts the true story of a Florida man s attempt to sell a dinosaur skeleton from Mongolia In 2012 a New York auction catalogue boasted an unusual offering a superb Tyrannosaurus skeleton In fact Lot 49135 consisted of a nearly complete T bataar a close cousin to the most famous animal that ever lived The fossils now on display in a Manhattan event space had been unearthed in Mongolia more than six zero miles away At eight feet high and twenty four feet long the specimen was spectacular and when the gavel sounded the winning bid was over 1 million Eric Prokopi a thirty eight year old Floridian was the man who had brought this extraordinary skeleton to market A onetime swimmer who spent his teenage years diving for shark teeth Prokopi s singular obsession with fossils fueled a thriving business hunting preparing and selling specimens to clients ranging from natural history museums to avid private collectors like actor Leonardo DiCaprio But as the T bataar went to auction a network of paleontologists alerted the government of Mongolia to the eye catching lot resulting in an international custody battle and unraveling Prokopi s world Paige Williams s The Dinosaur Artist is a stunning work of narrative journalism about humans relationship with natural history and a seemingly intractable conflict between science and commerce A story that stretches from Florida s Land O Lakes to the Gobi Desert it illuminates the history of fossil collecting a murky sometimes risky business populated by eccentrics and obsessives where the lines between poacher and hunter collector and smuggler enthusiast and opportunist can easily blur

Consumed Aja Barber, 2021-10-05 A call to action for consumers everywhere Consumed asks us to look at how and why we buy what we buy how it s created who it benefits and how we can solve the problems created by a wasteful system We live in a world of stuff We dispose of most of it in as little as six months after we receive it The byproducts of our quest to consume are creating an environmental crisis Aja Barber wants to change this and you can too In Consumed Barber calls for change within an industry that regularly overreaches with abandon creating real imbalances in the environment and the lives of those who do the work often in unsafe conditions for very low pay and the billionaires who receive the most profit A story told in two parts Barber exposes the endemic injustices in our consumer industries and the uncomfortable history of the textile industry one which brokered slavery racism and today's wealth inequality Once the layers are peeled back Barber invites you to participate in unlearning to understand the truth behind why we consume in the way that we do to confront the uncomfortable feeling that we are never quite enough and why we fill that void with consumption rather than compassion Barber challenges us to challenge the system and our role in it The less you buy into the consumer culture the more power you have Consumed will teach you how to be a citizen and not a consumer Forever 1980s Teenager: Family, Friends, Music and Memories Paul Tannahill,2025-06-30 To be a teenager in the 1980s What a great time it was The 80s Metal bands the shopping malls the arcades video stores and even the big hair The 1980s were big over the top and glorious And then one day we realized that it was all gone As a teenager I gave little thought as to what the future could be like I had no reason to believe that many of the places and pastimes of my youth would become almost obsolete In my young mind life as an adult would continue on with little change to the places and life that I so enjoyed But I was wrong Progress moving forward advancing whatever one wishes to call it the 1980s did not just disappear as a group of numbers The places and activities which they encompassed also began to fall into the abyss of time But time brings other changes to our lives as well Such as the loss of loved ones As we get older we learn what time is capable of taking from us The places and people of our youth who were once filled with love and life succumb to the grip of time But what it cannot take away from us is the incredible memories friendships and family love that become engraved in our minds and hearts with a crystal purity that time will never be able to rob from us This is my story of how time moves forward leaving only memories in its wake But this is also my story of what it was like to be a teenager in the 1980s Stories of activities and culture that many youth today may find difficult to believe really happened What was it like to be a mall rat What was it like to see video stores on every corner What was it like to go out and purchase a physical vinyl record instead of downloading one Come back in time with me and reminisce about the life of a teenager in the 1980s and how the future decades came to change so much of what was once an easier time sacramental worship can provide resources for responsible Christian discipleship in today's consumer culture Black & White, 1895 Scarlet and Black, 1896 Black Friday William W. Johnstone, J.A.
