McKenzie has plans that don't involve writing at all. She's schemed to ensure the one person she wants to see is here: the man who almost killed her mother. All have a secret. All will do anything to keep it hidden. And they're not alone. The retreat is perched on the edge of a forest steeped in the horrors of Australia's worst serial killer, and no one knows just who is watching. When a storm unleashes its fury and they're trapped, a body is left in the snow, and any one of them could be next. PRAISE Gilchrist: hooked me good and proper. Creepy, closed in, setting enough secrets and suspense to fill a body bag. Twisty narratives and the twisted psyches of we writers who weave them. Yes, don't mind if I do. I could check out from The Final Chapter any time I liked, but I could never leave. What a cracking mystery debut. Trent Dalton: A pacy and unpredictable thriller dripping with atmosphere and sharp observations. With an eerie, isolated house and deteriorating relationships between a cast of distinct and nuanced characters, each with their own agenda, the stage is set for a page-turning chill inducing gallop to the finish line. Jo Dixon: author of A Shadow at the Door and The House of Now and Then. This story of writers behaving badly on a deadly retreat from hell gripped me from the start with its intensely dramatic setting and ghostly goings on. Gilchrist is a bold and confident new voice in the world of gothic fiction; her prose leaps off the page like the storms that plague the retreat. Strap yourself in for a thrilling ride. Cassie Hamer: author of The Stranger at the Table. Deviously clever and wickedly sharp, this is one writer's retreat you'll be glad you only visited on the page. Kylie Orr: Australian author of The Eleventh Floor.
