com Sexualised Masculinity John Mercer, Clarissa Smith, 2025-02-10 Sexualised Masculinity Men's Bodies in 21st Century Media Culture explores evolving portrayals of masculinity in contemporary media focusing on the increasing eroticisation of the male body. This book examines how traditional and digital media from films and television to social media platforms and fashion have transformed the ways masculinity is represented and perceived. Through a wide array of case studies it highlights how male bodies are now sites of erotic value challenging long standing norms and expectations. By exploring both global and local media John Mercer and Clarissa Smith provide insights into the shifting landscape of gender and sexuality offering a critical perspective on how masculinity is consumed, performed and commodified in today's world. This book is essential for students and scholars in fields such as gender studies, media studies, cultural studies and social history and is particularly relevant for those interested in understanding the intersections of masculinity, media and sexuality in the 21st century.

Social Media and Modern Society - How Social Media Are Changing the Way We Interact with the World Around Ján Višňovský, Jana Majerová, 2024-11-27 This book offers a compelling exploration of how social media platforms are reshaping contemporary life and driving economic, political and cultural transformations. It brings together theoretical insights and empirical studies to examine the multifaceted impact of social media on communication behavior, policy and societal norms. The various chapters address critical issues such as digital marketing, social responsibility and the role of influencers, emphasizing how businesses and individuals are navigating the evolving digital landscape. The book delves into pressing concerns including the psychological effects of social media on youth, the spread of misinformation and the challenges of digital addiction. It highlights the dual nature of social platforms as both enablers of civic engagement and sources of division, presenting case studies on topics such as political discourse, community activism and local democracy.
