Ward's Automobile Topics, 1905 Automotive Industries, the Automobile, 1919 Sartre and Psychoanalysis Betty Cannon, 1991 Betty Cannon is the first to explore the implications of Sartrean philosophy for the Freudian psychoanalytic tradition Drawing upon Sartre's work as well as her own experiences as a practicing therapist she shows that Sartre was a fellow traveler who appreciated Freud's psychoanalytic achievements but rebelled against the determinism of his metatheory The mind Sartre argued cannot be reduced to a collection of drives and structures nor is it enslaved to its past as Freud's work suggested Sartre advocated an existentialist psychoanalysis based on human freedom and the self's ability to reshape its own meaning and value Through the Sartrean approach Cannon offers a resolution to the crisis in psychoanalytic metatheory created by the current emphasis on relational needs By comparing Sartre with Freud and influential post Freudians like Melanie Klein Otto Kernber Margaret Mahler D W Winnicott Heinz Kohut Harry Stack Sullivan and Jacques Lacan she demonstrates why the Sartrean model transcends the limitations of traditional Freudian metatheory In the process she adds a new dimension to our understanding of Sartre and his place in twentieth century philosophy The British Journal of Medical Psychology ,1921 The British Journal of Medical Psychology is an international journal with a traditional orientation towards psychodynamic issues While maintaining a broad theoretical base and insisting upon sound and sensible methodology its objective is to avoid the more simplistic approaches to psychological science The Journal aims to bring together the medical and psychological disciplines Collaborative studies between psychiatrists and psychologists are especially encouraged Original theoretical and research contributions are invited from the fields of psychodynamic and interpersonal psychology particularly as they have a bearing upon vulnerability to adjustment to and recovery from both medical and psychological disorders The Journal aims to promote theoretical and research developments in the fields of subjective psychological states and dispositions interpersonal attitudes behaviour and relationships only if they illustrate unusual forms of psychopathology or innovative forms of therapy which carry important theoretical implications British Journal of Psychology ,1921 Includes Proceedings of the British psychological society Medical section Abstracts of Theses University of Chicago,1928 Battle Creek Idea ,1910 The Advertising News ,1918 Common Sense ,1910 The Central Law Journal ,1919 Vols 65 96 include Central law journal s international law list Dodge Idea and Power and Transmission ,1907 Electrical Construction and Maintenance ,1920
