Boost Your Whole Health (52 Brilliant Ideas) Kate Cook,2007-06-05 52 fresh ways to shape yourself up inside and out This accessible and upbeat guide will help readers become more balanced healthier and happier people By making small but important improvements to their health mindset and lifestyle they ll see positive changes every day and new energy restored to their lives Idea 3 Vital energy Idea 6 Get organic Idea 40 Clutter busting Idea 52 Retreat Home Workout DK,2009-12-21 Forget gyms expensive kit and hours of punishing fitness regimes choose from a range of 15 minute pilates yoga and abs workouts back exercises and strength training programmes and get your body in top shape with Home Workout Clear at a glance photos show you exactly what to do and the live action 60 minute DVD demonstrates a choice of workouts to suit your fitness needs and mood A total fitness package exercising at home has never been easier or quicker Falls in Older Adults: Prevention and Risk Evaluation Tzvi Dwolatzky,2023-10-16 Falls are a major health challenge and represent the leading cause of accidental death in older adults It is essential to identify those factors associated with an increased risk for falls and to develop specific programs for fall prevention The risk of falling can be assessed in older adults using different parameters including biological psychosocial socioeconomic behavioral and environmental factors For example the risk of falls increases when vision is impaired when sleep quality is poor or when mood is depressed Moreover physical parameters such as changes in body mass and blood pressure are risk factors for falls in older adults Preparing for Life in a Digital Age Julian Fraillon,John Ainley,Wolfram Schulz,Tim Friedman,Eveline Gebhardt,2014-12-13 Ability to use information and communication technologies ICT is an imperative for effective participation in today s digital age Schools worldwide are responding to the need to provide young people with that ability But how effective are they in this regard The IEA International Computer and Information Literacy Study ICILS responded to this question by studying the extent to which young people have developed computer and information literacy CIL which is defined as the ability to use computers to investigate create and communicate with others at home school the workplace and in society The study was conducted under the auspices of the International Association for the Evaluation of Educational Achievement IEA and builds on a series of earlier IEA studies focusing on ICT in education Data were gathered from almost 60 000 Grade 8 students in more than 3 300 schools from 21 education systems This information was augmented by data from almost 35 000 teachers in those schools and by contextual data collected from school ICT coordinators school principals and the ICILS national research centers The IEA ICILS team systematically investigated differences among the participating countries in students CIL outcomes how participating countries were providing CIL related education and how confident teachers were in using ICT in their pedagogical practice The team also explored differences within and across countries with respect to relationships between CIL education outcomes and student characteristics and school contexts In general the study findings presented in this international report challenge the notion of young people as digital natives with a self developed capacity to use digital technology The large variations in CIL proficiency within and across the ICILS countries suggest it is naive to expect young people to develop CIL in the absence of coherent learning programs Findings also indicate that system and school level planning needs to focus on increasing teacher expertise in using ICT for pedagogical purposes if such programs are to have the desired effect The report furthermore presents an empirically derived scale and description of CIL learning that educational stakeholders can reference when deliberating about CIL education and use to monitor change in CIL over time

Bizarre Medical Ideas Edzard Ernst, 2024-05-26 This book focuses on the individuals who invented specific forms of alternative medicine Examples are Hahnemann homeopathy Still osteopathy Schulz autogenic training In total about 40 such personalities are included in the book They have all led unusual lives and the book explores their journey towards their inventions Certain characteristics seem to emerge They are all male Many originated from Europe Most of them are white Many gave their name to the therapy Many inventions are relatively recent Many inventors are not doctors Most inventors claim to have found a panacea Many adhere to vitalistic ideas Almost all of the inventors are fully convinced of their invention Inventions are often based on personal experience The inventions tend to be implausible even by the standards of their time The book explores all these themes and where appropriate contrasts them with the corresponding situation in conventional medicine The Power of Self Care: A Guide to Wellness and Balance.
