Comprehension Passages and Questions

The Case of the Vanishing Violin

Taylor loved playing the violin. She practiced every night and always kept her violin on its stand in the living room. One evening, she came home from school and found the empty chair with no violin.

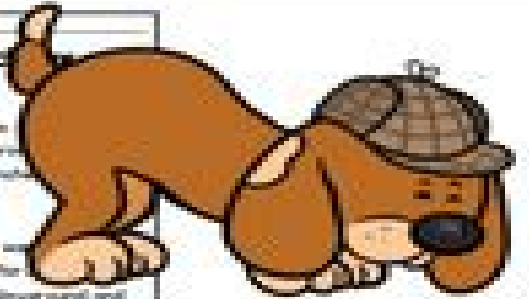

Taylor asked her parents and brother if they had seen it but no one knew where it was. She checked every room in the house but still it was gone.

The Case of the Missing Lunch

David loved his new superhero costume. At school, he couldn't find it in the locker. He looked on the table, under the bench, in the trash can, but it was gone.

David looked for it but he never found the costume. After finally he asked the janitor and found it hidden in the playground and

The Case of the Hidden Treasure

During a family picnic, Max and his cousin found a map made a while ago near the river. The map was so old and faded that Max decided to follow the map to find the treasure.

The map led them through the woods past a big oak tree, and to a small clearing. Digging in the wooded spot, they found a treasure box. Inside the box were old coins and a note that read, "Congratulations on finding the treasure." Max and his cousin were excited with their discovery and shared the treasure with their family.

Questions:
What did Max and his cousin find near the river?

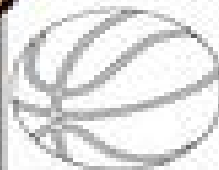

What did the map show?

Where did the map lead Max and his cousin?

What did they find in the buried box?

How did Max and his cousin feel about their discovery?

The Mystery of the Disappearing Basketball

During gym class, the students were playing basketball when suddenly the basketball disappeared. Coach Johnson couldn't find it anywhere. The students searched the gym, but the ball was gone.

Coach Johnson asked if anyone had seen what happened, but no one had. He noticed a slight crack in the wall near the bleachers and decided to investigate. Peering through the crack, he saw the basketball caught inside. Coach Johnson used a stick to push the ball out and reminded the students to be careful when playing near the walls.

Questions:
What game were the students playing during gym class?

Who was the gym teacher?

What did Coach Johnson notice near the bleachers?

How did Coach Johnson retrieve the basketball?

What reminder did Coach Johnson give the students?
