Clarke, 2021-06-08 A room's acoustic character seems at once the most technical and the most mystical of concerns Since the early Enlightenment European architects have systematically endeavored to represent and control the propagation of sound in large interior spaces Their work has been informed by the science of sound but has also been entangled with debates on style visualization techniques performance practices and the expansion of the listening public Echo's Chambers explores how architectural experimentation from the seventeenth through the mid twentieth centuries laid the groundwork for concepts of acoustic space that are widely embraced in contemporary culture It focuses on the role of echo and reverberation in the architecture of Pierre Patte Claude Nicolas Ledoux Carl Ferdinand Langhans and Le Corbusier as well as the influential acoustic ideas of Athanasius Kircher Richard Wagner and Marshall McLuhan Drawing on interdisciplinary theories of media and auditory culture Joseph L Clarke reveals how architecture has impacted the ways we continue to listen to talk about and creatively manipulate sound in the physical environment Beyond Wilderness John O'Brian, 2007-09-30 The great purpose of landscape art is to make us at home in our own country was the nationalist maxim motivating the Group of Seven's artistic project The empty landscape paintings of the Group played a significant role in the nationalization of nature in Canada particularly in the development of ideas about northernness wilderness and identity In this book John O Brian and Peter White pick up where the Group of Seven left off They demonstrate that since the 1960s a growing body of both art and critical writing has looked beyond wilderness to re imagine landscape in a world of vastly altered political technological and environmental circumstances By emphasizing social relationships changing identity politics and issues of colonial power and dispossession contemporary artists have produced landscape art that explores what was absent in the work of their predecessors Beyond Wilderness expands the public understanding of Canadian landscape representation tracing debates about the place of landscape in Canadian art and the national imagination through the twentieth century to the present Critical writings from both contemporary and historically significant curators historians feminists media theorists and cultural critics and exactly reproduced artworks by contemporary and historical artists are brought together in productive dialogue Beyond Wilderness explains why landscape art in Canada had to be reinvented and what forms the reinvention took Contributors include Benedict Anderson Cornell Grant Arnold Vancouver Art Gallery Rebecca Belmore Jody Berland York Eleanor Bond Concordia Jonathan Bordo Trent

Canadian Suburban Cheryl Cowdy, 2022-04-15 Though a large proportion of Canadians live in suburban communities the Canadian cultural imaginary is filled with other landscapes The wilderness the prairie cityscapes and small towns are the settings by which we define our nation rather than the strip mall the single family home and the developing subdivision which for many are ubiquitous features of everyday life Canadian Suburban considers the cultures of suburbia as they are articulated in English Canadian fiction published from the 1960s to the present Cheryl Cowdy begins her excursion through novels set between 1945 and 1970 the heyday of modern suburban development with works by canonical authors such as Margaret Laurence Richard B Wright Margaret Atwood and Barbara Gowdy Her investigation then turns to the meaning of the suburbs within fiction set after the 1970s when a more corporate model of suburbanization prevailed and ends with an investigation of how writers from immigrant and racialized communities are radically transforming the suburban imaginary Cowdy argues there is no one authentic suburban imaginary but multiple at times contradictory representations that disrupt prevalent assumptions about suburban homogeneity Canadian Suburban provides a foundation for understanding the literary history of suburbia and a refreshing reassessment of the role of space and place in Canadian culture and identity Reading between the Borderlines Gillian Roberts, 2018-12-30 Reading Between the Borderlines is impeccably edited and well written Its wide ranging contributions make it a mandatory addition to any library concerned with North American studies Amerikastudien American Studies An investigation into how culture is made moved and used across the Canada US border

Transforming McLuhan Paul Grosswiler,2010 Transforming McLuhan explores the radical humanist line of descent in interpreting Canadian media and culture theorist Marshall McLuhan s work rejecting the dominant view of McLuhan as a conservative uncritical herald of technological determinism and capitalism This McLuhan is the oppositional critic of modernity resisting uncontrolled technological change who seeks new media forms with a human face Contributors from diverse international and academic perspectives include Douglas Kellner Nick Stevenson Gary Genosko Richard Cavell Lance Strate Glenn Willmott Patrick Brantlinger Donna Flayhan and Bob Hanke Marshall McLuhan was the first to theorize and to develop a concept of media indicating their importance to all areas of society and culture Today media are far more pervasive than in the 1950s and 1960s when he wrote Yet his work has still not received its due attention Transforming McLuhan will begin to correct this oversight Mark Poster University of California Irvine Author of What's the Matter with the Internet and Information Please Transforming McLuhan re-reads the McLuhan phenomenon in light of today's media saturated 24/7 news and smartphone world Here we meet again with the visionary Tiresias in the Underworld whose dark sayings once lit the late afternoon of the twentieth century These critical readings create a time out to question him again and to open space time interstices for alternate thoughts and alternate actions Michael Heim Mount St Mary's College Los Angeles Author of The Metaphysics of Virtual Reality and Virtual Realism Transforming McLuhan offers a rich and textured reconsideration of Marshall McLuhan's ideas demonstrating how McLuhan's work is a better match for current multi-dimensional and ambivalent understandings of media and culture than it was for the narrower conceptions that guided those who dismissed McLuhan in his own time These provocative and well-written essays persuasively engage in what I have called morphing McLuhan with other key theoretical frameworks As a result Transforming McLuhan illustrates that cultural theorists have much to learn from McLuhanism but that McLuhan's perspective also has much room for enrichment from critical media studies Joshua Meyrowitz University of New Hampshire Author of No Sense of Place The Impact of Media on Social Behavior

Speechsong Richard Cavell, 2020 Speechsong is a work of imaginative musicology that addresses the enigmas of Schoenberg and Gould of singing and speaking of Moses and Aaron of technology and being Its point of departure is Gould s last public performance given at the Wilshire Ebell Theatre in Los Angeles where a number of Schoenberg s works were performed during his California exile It is here after that last performance that Gould encounters a spectral Schoenberg in a staged conversation that explores Schoenberg s travails in rethinking the fundamentals of Western music This first part of Speechsong recalls Schoenberg s operatic masterpiece Moses und Aron in which the divinely inspired Moses seeks the help of his brother to relate his vision Moses speaks and Aron sings Written as a twelve tone composition the opera produces an involution of harmonics that was Schoenberg s response to Richard Wagner s diatribes about synagogue noise For Gould Schoenberg s is a formalist revolution Schoenberg s life however suggests that it was a search for personal and political freedom The second half of Speechsong is a critical essay in twelve moments that re articulates the staged conversation as an inquiry into the intersections of music and mediation Gould s turn to the recording studio emerges as a post humanist inquiry into recorded music as a repudiation of the virtuoso tradition and a liberation from unitary notions of selfhood Schoenberg s exodus from musical tradition likewise takes his twelve tone invention beyond musical performance where it emerges along with Gould s soundscapes as a prototype of acoustic installations by artists such as Stephen Prina and Cory Arcangel In these works music abandons the concert hall and the exigencies of harmony for an acoustic space that embraces at once the recordings of Gould and the performances of Schoenberg that have found their home on the internet Richard Cavell has written extensively on Marshall McLuhan and on media theory generally He is the co founder of the Media Studies program at the University of British Columbia and the curator of the website Spectres of McLuhan Speechsong his second critical performance piece was preceded by Marinetti Dines with the High Command 2014
