Media Language on Islam and Muslims Salman Al-Azami, 2023-10-07 This book brings together contributions from ten academics and a commentary from a Muslim community leader on how the British media represent some of the most important terminologies related to Islam and Muslims It takes a nuanced approach to language within Muslims in the media research by focusing on terminologies Each contributor in this volume focused on one terminology and its associated words to show how the representation of these terminologies have major implications on the lives of British Muslims The book also includes some key recommendations on the usage of these terms from the Media Style Guide of the Centre for Media monitoring a research organisation of the Muslim Council of Britain This book's link with the Muslim community can be a step towards new approaches in this field where academics will engage with communities and practitioners to ensure better impact of their academic works This book will be of interest to students scholars and practitioners in a range of fields including Journalism Media and Communication Studies English Language and Linguistics Sociology Cultural and Religious Studies Islam and Muslims in the West Adis Duderija, Halim Rane, 2018-07-27 This book analyzes the development of Islam and Muslim communities in the West including influences from abroad relations with the state and society and internal community dynamics The project examines the emergence of Islam in the West in relation to the place of Muslim communities as part of the social fabric of Western societies It provides an overview of the major issues and debates that have arisen over the last three to four decades surrounding the presence of new Muslim communities residing in Western liberal democracies As such the volume is an ideal text for courses focusing on Islam and Muslim communities in the West

Resisting the Dehumanization of Refugees Yasmeen Abu-Laban, Michael Frishkopf, Reza Hasmath, Anna Kirova, 2024-05-28 Refugees face distinct challenges and are often subject to dehumanization by politicians media and the public In this context Resisting the Dehumanization of Refugees provides urgent insights and policy relevant perspectives to improve refugees social well being and integration Taking a transdisciplinary approach scholars from the social sciences arts and humanities alongside practitioners and refugees explore what it means to experience dehumanization They consider how refugees experiences of dehumanization inform both epistemological and practical approaches to humanizing or re humanizing refugees before during and after resettlement By addressing these important issues contributors marshal rich and multidimensional responses that draw upon our shared humanity and reveal new possibilities for change The Bibles of the Far Right Hannah M. Strømmen, 2024 The Bibles of the Far Right is about a far right worldview that has taken hold in contemporary Europe It focuses on the role Bibles have come to play in this worldview Starting with the case of far right terrorism in Norway in 2011 the study argues that particular perceptions of the Bible and particular uses of biblical texts have been significant in calls to protect Europe against Islam This study proposes new ways to understand political Bible use today in order to respond to violence inspired by biblical texts Reporting Political Islam and Democracy Mohammed-Ali Abunajela, Nael Jebri, 2020-05-14 For over a decade Al Jazeera Arabic occupied an unprecedented position among Arab audiences and families Its attractive and daring news coverage has inspired millions of Arabs and led other news channels to follow suit by changing their reporting narrative and presentational style However in the aftermath of the Arab uprisings in 2011 the close adoption of the Arab uprisings in general and the Egyptian one in particular made the channel fall into the eye of the public storm through its extensive 24 hour coverage This book assesses whether the channel systematically provided a platform for certain ideologies or ignored others and if and how Al Jazeera's language had shifted after the 2011 Arab uprisings It also explores the rationale behind adopting particular editorial principles featured in the analyses and scrutinises the findings within the framework of media religion and democratisation US Approaches to the Arab Uprisings Amentahru Wahlrab, Michael J. McNeal, 2017-12-11 From nonviolent protests in Cairo and Manama to the ousting of Libya's Gaddafi and the beginning of the Syrian Civil War the series of uprisings which swept through the Middle East and North Africa from late 2010 have been burdened with the collective hopes and expectations of the world Western supporters quickly identified these uprisings as a collective awakening a move towards democracy but the continued unrest in these regions defies many of these more optimistic contemporary predictions As the region remains unstable the US and their Western allies are faced with the challenging task of modifying their strategic foreign policy goals to suit the currently mercurial Arab World The Arab Spring and its failure exposed a new set of questions What motivates American democracy promotion Does the US really want self determination in the Middle East and North Africa Where did the expectations of the protestors fit into this narrative U S Approaches to the Arab Uprisings provides a comprehensive assessment of Western foreign policy towards the Arab World today With analysis on subjects as diverse as social media and Islamic centrism and drawing from examples throughout the MENA region the book deals with the perception of Arabs and Arab culture in the American psyche and its effect on East West relations By analyzing both Western responses to uprisings and the reactions of the protestors themselves the contributors expose theoretical and practical inconsistencies that suggest a rising tension between those that promote democracy and those who practice it Selling War, Selling Hope Anthony R.

DiMaggio, 2015-09-21 Details how presidents utilize mass media to justify foreign policy objectives in the aftermath of 9 11 Modern presidents have considerable power in selling U S foreign policy objectives to the public In Selling War Selling Hope Anthony R DiMaggio documents how presidents often make use of the media to create a positive informational environment that at least in the short term successfully builds public support for policy proposals Using timely case studies with a focus on the Arab Spring and the U S War on Terror in the Middle East and surrounding regions DiMaggio explains how official spin is employed to construct narratives that are sympathetic to U S officialdom The mass media rather than exhibiting independence when it comes to reporting foreign policy issues is regularly utilized as a political tool for selling official proposals The marginalization of alternative critical viewpoints poses a significant obstacle to informed public deliberations on foreign policy issues In the long run however the packaging of official narrative and its delivery by the media begins to unravel as citizens are able to make use of alternative sources of information and assert their independence from official viewpoints Selling War Selling Hope is an innovative project that pushes the fields of political science political communication public opinion and presidential rhetoric into new and exciting directions This book is essential reading Mark Major author of The Unilateral Presidency and the News Media The Politics of Framing Executive Power This eye opening exposition offers a radical new conclusion to the debate over why Americans oppose wars Americans oppose particular wars for moral reasons By capturing the wide range of presidential rhetoric from fear to hope DiMaggio documents the depths plumbed by political and other elites to manipulate the American public to support the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq In order to counteract American citizens moral opposition to war political elites manipulate citizens fears into support for war by giving them hope but the policies they choose more often than not lead to more war and reason for fear which creates a vicious cycle fear hope war The challenge we face is to break through the noise and the manipulation of political economic and military elites DiMaggio offers us a way to see clearly Amentahru Wahlrab University of Texas at Tyler

Reporting Islam Jacqui Ewart, Kate O'Donnell, 2018-04-19 Reporting Islam argues for innovative approaches to media coverage of Muslims and their faith The book examines the ethical dilemmas faced by Western journalists when reporting on this topic and offers a range of alternative journalistic techniques that will help news media practitioners move away from dominant news values and conventions when reporting on Islam The book is based on an extensive review of international literature and interviews with news media editors copy editors senior reporters social media editors in house journalism trainers and journalism educators conducted for the Reporting Islam Project In addition the use of an original model the Transformative Journalism Model provides further insight into the nature of news reports about Muslims and Islam The findings collated here help to identify the best and worst reporting practices adopted by different news outlets as well as the factors which have influenced them Building on this the authors outline a new strategy for more accurate fair and informed reporting of stories relating to Muslims and Islam By combining an overview of different journalistic approaches with real world accounts from professionals and advice on best practice journalists journalism educators and students will find this book a useful guide to contemporary news coverage of Islam

Navigating Religious Authority in Muslim Societies Asif Mohiuddin, 2023-11-09 Globalisation stands as an indispensable lens through which to analyse current cultural political and social transformations This prevailing paradigm acknowledged by its advocates and critics profoundly shapes our environment Within this global landscape Islam's position is noteworthy often perceived as rejecting globalisation and its secular underpinnings This book offers a perspective of the global resurgence of religion in general and the revival of Islam in particular as crucial features of globalisation Furthermore the book deeply explores how Islamist groups strategically challenge religious authority utilising social media and the internet to reshape their spheres of influence By exploring these dynamics the book aims to provide comprehensive insights into the interplay between Islamist strategies digital platforms and religious institutions within our interconnected world

Socio-Anthropological Approaches to Religion David W. Kim, Duncan Wright, 2024-02-14 Socio Anthropological Approaches to Religion Environmental Hope interprets the fundamental functions of spirituality through the theories and practices of hope and understanding the futuristic aspiration of new religious movements The book portrays a neutral notion of hope that can be either religious or humanistic in the face of the suffering or despair of present reality The concept of hope or hopelessness is demonstrated in each chapter under the global circumstance of health risk Part One represents the various theories of hope in Christian history ecology and climate the Sabbath and surveillance and the triune God The insecure situation that creates the expectation of hope is demonstrated in Part Two where the case studies of terrorist attacks immigration volunteering behavior religious education and medieval

Islamic tradition indicate social unbalance The last section illustrates the cultural anthropology of hope through the activities of different native new religious movements including the Moonies Unification movement Yoruba Nigerian indigenous spirituality and Cosmovisions of Sepik New Guinea This book examines hope as a crucial element of human s internal healing beyond medical technology
