Reprint) J. P. Wickersham Crawford, 2015-07-28 Excerpt from Temas Espanoles This little book is designed to furnish material in Spanish composition and conversation to second year classes The subjects treated in the twenty eight lessons are to some degree the same as those included in my Spanish Composition published some years ago but the texts are sufficiently dissimilar for the two books to be used to advantage in alternating years in the same school Each of the first twenty lessons is divided into five parts In the first part the fundamental principles of grammar are studied systematically and the grammatical rules are stated briefly and simply in Spanish Opinions may differ as to the advisability of introducing a considerable amount of Spanish grammatical terminology in the elementary course but it seems reasonable that when the grammar is reviewed students should at least be required to read the rules in Spanish Whether any further use will be made of this material in the classroom will depend upon the judgment of the teacher About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes
