Popular Science Monthly ,1929 The CEO's Little Secret Cassandra Kim, Darien a billionaire CEO used to have one big secret his sexuality Then he met Zach who discovered his secret Instead of punishing him Darien makes him an offer If Zach can make him happy he will give him anything he desires It takes Darien less than one week to fall in love with Zach Now his biggest secret is his love for Zach A Filtered Life Nicole Taylor,Mimi Nichter,2021-12-23 A Filtered Life is the first comprehensive ethnographic account to explore how college students create and manage multiple identities on social media Drawing on interviews and digital ethnographic data gleaned from popular social media platforms the authors document and make visible routinized practices that are typically hidden and operating behind the scenes They introduce the concept of digital multiples wherein students strategically present themselves differently across social media platforms This requires both the copious production of content and the calculated development of an instantly recognizable aesthetic or brand Taylor and Nichter examine key contradictions that emerged from student narratives including presenting a self that is both authentic and highly edited appearing upbeat even during emotionally difficult times and exuding body positivity even when frustrated with how you look Students struggled with this series of impossibilities yet they felt compelled to maintain a vibrant online presence With its close up portrayal of the social and embodied experiences of college students A Filtered Life is ideal for students and scholars interested in youth studies digital ethnography communication and new forms of media

Popular Religion in Southeast Asia Robert L. Winzeler,2015-12-17 In this overview of popular religion in Southeast Asia Robert L Winzeler offers an interpretative look at the nature of today s indigenous religious traditions as well as Hinduism Buddhism Islam and Christianity and conversion He focuses not on religion as it exists in books doctrine theology and among elites and dominant institutions but rather in the lives beliefs and practices of ordinary people Popular Religion in Southeast Asia employs a broad view of religion as involving not just the usual Western notions of faith but also supernatural belief in general magic sorcery and practical concerns such as healing personal protection and success in business Case studies and concrete examples flesh out the discussion demonstrating how popular religion relates to historical and contemporary social cultural political and economic developments in the region Ethnography in the Open Science and Digital Age: New

Debates, Dilemmas, and Issues Colin Jerolmack,Alexandra Murphy ,Victoria Reyes,2024-06-19 In the current moment ethnography is caught up in a number of debates that have led ethnographers to reflect on classic methodological and ethical dilemmas in new ways The replication crisis had led to a movement for open science e g registering hypotheses in advance sharing codes and data but it seems unclear that recommended best practices are appropriate to ethnography It s even up for debate whether ethnography is more of a social science or a genre The fact that many ethnographies are widely read invites questions and criticisms from beyond the ivory tower including our subjects about the ethics of representation e g who has license to write about whom and the extent to which journalistic standards of data verification and transparency e g

fact checking naming sources should apply to qualitative research Some ethnographers are calling for more open critical discussions about the embodied dimensions of fieldwork including not only emotions but also issues like sexual intimacy and harassment There s also a growing expectation that ethnographers empower our subjects to represent and analyze themselves What s more as more of social life is lived online it becomes increasingly unclear where the boundaries of the field site should be drawn and whether ethnographic conventions can be applied wholesale to the study of digital spaces
