Mindmapping China Language Discourse And Advertising In China:

Mindmapping China Jeanne Boden, 2010 Looks at how language in China is closely tied to its rich cultural history and explores how language is used as a political ethical and commercial tool

The Role of Language and Symbols in Promotional Strategies and Marketing Schemes Epure, Manuela, Mihăeș, Lorena Clara, 2018-09-28 In the increasingly competitive global market successful and meaningful intercultural advertising plays a key role in reaching out to consumers from diverse language and cultural backgrounds Therefore it is crucial for individuals and businesses to be able to navigate the field of marketing communications to cut through the noise in a consumerist society to persuade their target audience The Role of Language and Symbols in Promotional Strategies and Marketing Schemes provides emerging research exploring the theoretical and practical aspects of the power of words and symbols used in promotional strategies and marketing schemes Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as shock advertising branding and celebrity endorsement this book is ideally designed for marketers managers business professionals academicians researchers and graduate level students seeking current research on the use of language and symbols in marketing tactics

Africa-China Cooperation Philani Mthembu, Faith Mabera, 2020-10-01 This book offers a range of perspectives on the Africa China partnership in the context of the Forum on China and Africa Cooperation FOCAC Incorporating historical political social and cultural dimensions it offers innovative views on the Africa China relationship that combine theory and practice and critically examines the prospects of a Pan African policy towards China complementary to China's comprehensive African policy The chapters address a number of key questions including What steps are being taken to achieve a more coordinated approach and policy towards China on the African continent Does Africa even need a collective strategy in the first place How would a coherent policy framework affect Africa's relations with Europe and other external partners How do the pillars of the partnership align with the African Union's Agenda 2063 and the United Nations 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

Contemporary Chinese Art Jeanne Boden, 2022-05-06 In the early 1990s artist Xu Bing stamped two pigs with respectively nonsensical Latin words and fake Chinese characters and allowed them to mate in an art gallery The performance of two creatures devoid of human consciousness yet carrying on their bodies the marks of human civilization engaging in the most primal form of social intercourse confronted the public with the tension between nature and civilization The work also addresses the tension between China and the West and therefore perfectly fits the core message of this book Contemporary art in China takes place in a post socialist post Mao context and at the same time a post traditional one searching for balance between aesthetic legacy and modernization It also tries to find its position in the post colonial globalized arena This book explores the tension between individual artistic freedom and a dominant discourse of central Chinese government between China's cultural legacy and modernization and between China and a global art world still dominated by a Western canon As a case study it focuses on the artists who participated in the Venice Biennale in 1993

which was the first time contemporary art from mainland China was structurally invited to participate in a global art context
Jeanne Boden has a PhD in Oriental Languages and Cultures Her research focuses on Eurocentrism Sinocentrism and contemporary Chinese art jeanneboden.com Cover picture Xu Bing A Case Study of Transference 1993 94 Cultural Quantum

Jeanne Boden, 2021-01-23 The book can be seen as a manual with practical tools and guidelines for managing cross cultural cooperation and to optimize management styles in cross cultural contexts Every culture has its own logic Terms and concepts such as leadership ownership consensus decision making and many others that we use daily in international management and communication practice are far from universal Successful cross cultural cooperation requires a common framework It is not enough to be aware of cultural differences we need practical tools and guidelines for managing cross cultural cooperation This book introduces and applies the Cultural Quantum Five Step Method developed by Dr Jeanne Boden Business people academics and other professionals find the Cultural Quantum Five Step Method thought provoking and eye opening The ideas contained here will resonate with anyone who deals with colleagues or customers with a different cultural background from their own Contemporary Chinese Discourse and Social Practice in China

Linda Tsung, Wei Wang, 2015-10-09 Significant socio political changes in China have had great impact on Chinese discourse Changes to the discourse have become an increasing focus of scholarship This book examines contemporary Chinese discourse and social practice in China with a focus on the role that language plays in the on going transformation of Chinese society With a view to producing new insights into the interdependence between discourse and social practice this volume explores how discourse has been changing in a context dependent way how social practice can lead to shifts in the use of discourse and how identities and attitudes are constructed through language use Largely based on empirical studies this book indicates that Chinese discourse has not only been an integral part of social change but also Chinese discourse itself is changing reflecting ideologies values attitudes identities and social practice The book is a great resource for scholars in diverse disciplinary studies including linguistics communication education media and political studies concerning contemporary China Advertising and Consumer Culture in China

Hongmei Li, 2016-09-06 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of Chinese advertising as an industry a discourse and profession in China s search for modernity and cultural globalization It compares and contrasts the advertising practices of Chinese advertising agencies and foreign advertising agencies and Chinese brands and foreign brands with a particular focus on the newest digital advertising practices in the post WTO era Based on extensive interviews participant observation and a critical analysis of secondary data Li offers an engaging analysis of the transformation of Chinese advertising in the past three decades in Post Mao China Drawing upon theories of political economy media and cultural studies her analysis offers most significant insights in advertising and consumer culture as well as the economic social political and cultural transformations in China The book is essential for students and scholars of communication media cultural studies and international business and all those interested in cultural globalization and China Special Issue: Media Language and Discourse in Cultural China Doreen D. Wu, Ming Liu, David C. S. Li, 2022 Discourse and Socio-political Transformations in Contemporary China Paul Chilton, Hailong Tian, Ruth Wodak, 2012-09-05 China's opening up to the West its extraordinary economic rise and the subsequent internal and global issues are an object of huge interest and concern Discourse and Socio-political Transformations in Contemporary China focuses on one aspect of the contemporary Chinese phenomenon one that is so obvious that it is generally ignored in the mainstream academic departments that politics society and transformation are the product of myriad collective linguistic interchanges some stabilized some competing some agonistic some new and emerging As an outcome of dialogue between Chinese and Western scholars the present volume contains case studies that offer a survey of the discourse aspect of Chinese society in social stratification government service policy consultancy higher education foreign policy and TV The conceptual reflections on discourse and critique in different cultures offer new considerations for discourse analysis including critical discourse analysis in the context of Chinese society today This volume was originally published as a special issue of Journal of Language and Politics 9 4 2010 Analyzing Chinese Language and Discourse Across Layers and Genres Wei Wang, 2020 This book examines contemporary Chinese language and discourse across a spectrum of linguistic layers and genres in diverse social contexts Advertising Greenness in China Shubo Liu, 2015 Interrogative Strategies Tianhua Luo, 2016-09-15 This book deals with how to ask questions in the languages of China The syntactic morphological and lexical forms for distinguishing interrogatives take centre stage intonation is also dealt with but more peripherally than question particles disjunctive and negative constructions and word order 140 languages spoken in China are covered coming from four major families Sino-Tibetan Altaic Austronesian and Austro-Asiatic accompanied by a few mixed languages The approach is areal typological i.e. these focal languages are compared to the languages of the world as represented in typological samples and within China areal patterns of the structural variables are examined The book will be an indispensable reference for future work on interrogatives in a typological context and for areal studies of the language situation in China and more generally East Asia The Linguistic Landscape in China Yanmei Han, Guowen Shang, 2024-02-25 This book explores the linguistic landscape of various cities in China systematically examining the intricate relationship among language policy language ideologies and visible multilingualism in the public space Framed in the spatial triad encompassing spatial practice conceived space and lived space this study conceptualizes linguistic landscape practices language policy and residents' perception as three interconnected dimensions of linguistic landscape to unpack the motives manipulations contestations and negotiations behind the language display in China a highly regulated society that attaches great significance to language planning Taking the linguistic landscape of key cities as cases this book demonstrates how linguistic landscape mediates city governance and image identity construction contestations and negotiations in language ideologies and in what ways the agency of linguistic landscape contributes to the harmony of language life in the multilingual society The book is unique in three aspects First it is the first book with a keen focus on mapping the linguistic landscape in the Chinese contexts Second it uncovers the relationship between linguistic diversity on display and macro issues concerning city image construction language politics and language ideologies Third it provides a lens to look into China's governance of the public space and instrumentalization of multiple languages in the globalized era

语言生活 2014 Unpacking Discourses on Chineseness Shuang Gao,Xuan Wang,2021-09-09 This book examines the complexity of Chineseness in China and the Chinese diaspora Using critical sociolinguistic and discourse analytical approaches the chapters reveal the power dynamics and ideologies underlying the varied ways Chineseness is performed represented and contested Together they highlight four perspectives on Chineseness the multiplicity of Chineseness aspirational Chineseness chronotopes of Chineseness and the cultural politics of Chineseness It is argued that Chineseness is best understood as an ideologically constructed variable the articulation of which is deeply embedded within the dynamics of neoliberal globalization rising nationalism persistent Western hegemony and shifting global geopolitics

Language, Discourse, and Praxis in Ancient China Zhenbin Sun,2014-09-23 This book investigates Chinese comprehension and treatment of the relationship between language and reality The work examines ancient Chinese philosophy through the pair of concepts known as ming shi By analyzing the pre Qin thinkers discourse on ming and shi the work explores how Chinese philosophers dealt with issues not only in language but also in ontology epistemology ethics axiology and logic Through this discourse analysis readers are invited to rethink the relationship of language to thought and behavior The author criticizes and corrects vital misunderstandings of Chinese culture and highlights the anti dualism and pragmatic character of Chinese thoughts The rich meaning of the ming shi pair is displayed by revealing its connection to other philosophical issues The chapters show how discourse on language and reality shapes a central characteristic of Chinese culture the practical zhi They illuminate the interplay of Chinese theories of language and Dao as Chinese wisdom and worldview Readers who are familiar with pragmatics and postmodernism will recognize the common points in ancient Chinese philosophy and contemporary Western philosophy as they emerge through these chapters The work will particularly appeal to scholars of philosophy philosophy of language communication studies and linguistics Media Language and

Discourse Sin Cultural China Doreen D. Wu,Ming Liu,David C. S.
