Power, Culture, and Family-School Relations Jen Stacy, 2025-01-30 Power Culture and Family School Relations Towards Culturally Sustaining Practices explores the extent to which common practices in school based family outreach advance equity or sustain the status quo in power and cultural relations Using a rich ethnographic account of a school based family literacy program in Nebraska the book unfolds the daily cultural practices of the program so that readers may visualize and contemplate how and if the program serves newcomer and refugee families within the unique context of the New Latine Diaspora The author draws upon critical theory to showcase how neoliberal and deficit ideologies are at play throughout the different aspects of the program the influence these ideologies have on the participants and the tactics used by the caregivers to resist and change the programmatic structures and curriculum to meet their needs As such the book invites educators administrators and scholars into the nebulous and difficult conversation about how schools paradoxical entities that often colonize but prospectively liberate must not just rethink how they work with parents and caregivers but rather dismantle traditional cultural practices that seek to assimilate minoritized families Showcasing the power of ethnography as a tool which can be used to support educators and scholars to understand cultural elements of family outreach programs on a semiotic level and how transforming these semiotic building blocks can lead to equitable relationships it will appeal to scholars and researchers with interests in adult education social foundations of education critical ethnography multilingual Adult Basic Education and family outreach Reading Research Quarterly ,1976 The Reading Teacher ,1975 American Lumberman ,1904 The Billboard ,1928 The Grizzly Bear ,1914 The Final Chapter January Gilchrist,2025-07-29 Benjamin Stevenson meets Nine Perfect Strangers in a story about writerly ambition self discovery and of course revenge Sharp fresh bold thrilling and gothic gripping suspense from a spectacular new Australian talent An opportunity a writer would die for Desley Barron is ready to prove her doubters and herself wrong about her flagging writing career She s won a spot at an exclusive writing retreat in the Blue Mountains Only instead of feeling creative Desley finds her insecurity increases while the ghost stories about the house have her jumping at shadows This secluded house is the last place anyone will think to look for high profile author Colette Halifax which is perfect as she hides from a looming scandal Unfortunately someone here is threatening to ruin the one part of her life that isn t already a shambles Meanwhile Maia McKenzie has plans that don t involve writing at all She s schemed to ensure the one person she wants to see is here the man who almost killed her mother All have a secret All will do anything to keep it hidden And they re not alone The retreat is perched on the edge of a forest steeped in the horrors of Australia s worst serial killer and no one knows just who is watching When a storm unleashes its fury and they re trapped a body is left in the snow and any one of them could be next PRAISE Gilchrist hooked me good and proper Creepy closed in setting Enough secrets and suspense to fill a body bag Twisty narratives and the twisted psyches of we writers who weave them Yes don t mind if I do I could check out from The Final Chapter any time I liked but I could never leave What a cracking mystery debut Trent Dalton A pacy and unpredictable thriller dripping with atmosphere and sharp observations With an eerie isolated house and the deteriorating relationships between a cast of distinct and nuanced characters each with their own agenda the stage is set for a page turning chill inducing gallop to the finish line Jo Dixon author of A Shadow at the Door and The House of Now and Then This story of writers behaving badly on a deadly retreat from hell gripped me from the start with its intensely dramatic setting and ghostly goings on Gilchrist is a bold and confident new voice in the world of gothic fiction her prose leaps off the page like the storms that plague the retreat Strap yourself in for a thrilling ride Cassie Hamer author of The Stranger at the Table Deviously clever and wickedly sharp this is one writer s
