United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Human Resources. Subcommittee on Education, Arts, and Humanities, 1991 This volume presents transcripts of seven hearings held in May 1991 on the reauthorization of the Higher Education Act of 1965 Of the hearings held in the District of Columbia the first focused on the Pell Grant and Stafford Loan programs and featured witnesses from around the country addressing educational finance The second hearing focused on the process of accreditation certification and licensing that determines institutional participation in the Federal student aid programs and featured witnesses from educational institutions and professional associations The final hearing presented the testimony of college executives representatives of educational associations and others on Title VI which supports international education and Title III concerned with institutional aid and funding for institutional facilities The hearings in other cities provided an opportunity for legislators to hear additional suggestions and recommendations from students teachers administrators institutional executives and state agencies on the reauthorization of higher education programs Included are the prepared statements of the witnesses as well as additional statements correspondence and supplemental material JB Federal Student Loans Tatiana Shohov, 2004 Title IV of the Higher Education Act HEA authorises the major federal student aid programs including the student loan programs which are the largest source of aid for students In FY2000 the Federal Family Education Loan FFEL programs and the Federal Direct Student Loan DL program supported an estimated 33 1 billion in new loan volume Several types of loans are available Federal need based subsidised Stafford loans under which the government pays the interest while the borrower is in school a grace period of deferment unsubsidised Stafford loans Federal PLUS loans for parents of undergraduate students and Federal Consolidation loans Overall student loan volume has been increased in recent years from 24 billion in FY1994 to 33 billion in FY2000 The number of loans being made has increased over the same period going from 6 483 000 to 8 618 000 The average amount that individual students are borrowing in any given year has not increased as dramatically This new book examines important issues related to this
