Saturday Evening Post, 1967 Racism in Football Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Culture, Media and Sport Committee, 2012-09-19 The atmosphere experienced by those attending football matches has changed hugely since the 1970s and 80s when racial and other forms of abuse were common Match attendance has become much more of a family friendly activity and clubs continue to introduce measures to try to improve the standards of behaviour at matches However there remain significant problems ranging from homophobic abuse to what is often described as laddish behaviour on the terraces Transparent and consistent methods for reporting criminal behaviour including racism are still lacking in particular at grass roots level The Committee recommends it should be a priority for the FA to develop procedures for stewards to
