Binge TV Emil Steiner,2023-03-20 For the first 70 years of television broadcasters dictated the terms of the viewing experience deciding not only when but how much of a program an audience could watch Binge watching destroyed that model by placing control of the experience in the hands of the viewer In this book media scholar Emil Steiner chronicles the technological and cultural struggle between broadcasters and viewers which reached a climax in the early 2010s with the emergence of streaming video platforms Through extensive interviews and archival research this groundbreaking project traces the history of binge watching from its idiot box roots to the new normal of Peak TV Along the way Steiner exposes the news campaigns waged by disruptive technology companies that exploited a long simmering revolutionary narrative of viewer empowerment to take over the broadcast industry Binge watching an individual s act of gaining control and losing control through the remote control exposed a debate that had been raging since the first TV set was turned on one that asks Who controls the story

Dangerous Fictions Lyta Gold,2025-10-14 In a political moment when social panics over literature are at their peak Dangerous Fictions is a mind expanding treatise on the nature of fictional stories as cultural battlegrounds for power Fictional stories have long held an uncanny power over hearts and minds especially those of young people In Dangerous Fictions Lyta Gold traces arguments both historical and contemporary that have labeled fiction as dark immoral frightening or poisonous Within each she asks How dangerous is fiction really And what about it provokes waves of moral panic and even censorship Gold argues that any panic about art is largely a disguised panic about power There have been versions of these same fights over fiction for centuries By exposing fiction as a social danger and a battleground of immediate public concern we can see what each side really wants the right to shape the future of a world deeply in flux and a distraction from more pressing material concerns about money access and the hard work of politics From novels about people driven insane by reading novels to copaganda TV shows that influence how viewers regard the police Gold uses her signature wit research and fearless commentary to point readers toward a more substantial question Fiction may be dangerous to us but aren t we also dangerous to it
