Performing Dream Homes Emily Klein, Jennifer-Scott Mobley, Jill Stevenson, 2019-01-22 This anthology explores how theatre and performance use home as the prism through which we reconcile shifts in national cultural and personal identity Whether examining parlor dramas and kitchen sink realism site specific theatre travelling tent shows domestic labor border performances fences or front yards these essays demonstrate how dreams of home are enmeshed with notions of neighborhood community politics and memory Recognizing the family home as a symbolic space that extends far beyond its walls the nine contributors to this collection study diverse English language performances from the US Ireland and Canada These scholars of theatre history dramaturgy performance cultural studies feminist and gender studies and critical race studies also consider the value of home at a time increasingly defined by crises of homelessness a moment when major cities face affordable housing shortages when debates about homeland and citizenship have dominated international elections and when conflicts and natural disasters have displaced millions Global struggles over immigration sanctuary refugee status and migrant labor make the stakes of home and homelessness ever more urgent and visible as this timely collection reveals

Walking Inside Out Tina Richardson, 2015-07-07 Walking Inside Out is the first text that attempts to merge the work of literary and artist practitioners with academics to critically explore the state of psychogeography today The collection explores contemporary psychogeographical practices shows how a critical form of walking can highlight easily overlooked urban phenomenon and examines the impact that everyday life in the city has on the individual Through a variety of case studies it offers a British perspective of international spaces from the British metropolis to the post communist European city By situating the current strand of psychogeography within its historical political and creative context along with careful consideration of the challenges it faces Walking Inside Out offers a vision for the future of the discipline

Contemporary Chinese Queer Performance Hongwei Bao, 2022-08-19 In this ground breaking study Hongwei Bao analyses queer theatre and performance in contemporary China This book documents various forms of queer performance including music film theatre and political activism in the first two decades of the twenty first century In doing so Bao argues for the importance of performance for queer identity and community formation This trailblazing work uses queer performance as an analytical lens to challenge heteronormative modes of social relations and hegemonic narratives of historiography It will be of great interest to students and scholars of theatre and performance studies gender and sexuality studies and Asian studies

The City as Subject Carolyn S. Loeb, 2022-02-24 In The City as Subject Carolyn S Loeb examines distinctive bodies of public art in Berlin legal and illegal murals painted in West Berlin in the 1970s and 1980s post reunification public sculptures and images and sites from the street art scene Her careful analyses show how these developed new architectural and spatial vocabularies that drew on the city's infrastructure and daily urban experience These works challenged mainstream urban development practices and engaged with citizen activism and with a wider civic discourse about what a city can be Loeb extends this urban focus to her examination of the extensive outdoor installation of the Berlin Wall Memorial and its mandate to represent the history of the city's division. She studies its surrounding neighborhoods to show that while the Memorial adopts many of the urban oriented vocabularies established by the earlier works of public art she examines it truncates the story of urban division which stretches beyond the Wall's existence. Loeb suggests that by embracing more multi-vocal perspectives the Memorial could encourage the kind of participatory and heterogeneous construction of the city championed by the earlier works of public art.

Performing the 'New' Europe Karen Fricker, Milija Gluhovic, 2013-05-13 Bringing together the voices of scholars from Europe and North America with those of key contest stakeholders Performing the New Europe Identities Feelings and Politics in the Eurovision Song Contest argues that this popular music competition is a symbolic contact zone between European cultures an arena for European identification in which both national solidarity and participation in a European identity are confirmed and a site where cultural struggles over the meanings frontiers and limits of Europe are enacted. This exciting collection explores the ways in which European artists perform disavow and contest their racial national and sexual identities in the Eurovision Song Contest ESC and asks difficult questions about European inclusions and exclusions the contest reflects. It suggests the ESC as an ever evolving network of peoples and places transcending both historical and geographical boundaries of Europe that brings into being new understandings of the relationship between culture space and identities.

Journal of Dramatic Theory and Criticism, 2016 New Books on Women, Gender and Feminism, 2013 New Books on Women and Feminism, 2013 Réceptions de la culture japonaise en France depuis 1945 Fabien Arribert-Narce, Kohei Kuwada, Lucy O'Meara, 2016 Performing Cities N. Whybrow, 2014-08-19 Performing Cities is an edited volume of contributions by a range of internationally renowned academics and performance makers from across the globe each one covering a particular city and examining it from the dynamic perspectives of performances occurring in cities and the city itself as performance.

International Journal of China Studies, 2013 Dancing Mosaic Mohd. Anis Md. Nor, 2012 Fair Play - Art, Performance and Neoliberalism J. Harvie, 2013-08-29 This book asks what is the quality of participation in contemporary art and performance. Has it been damaged by cultural policies which have entrepreneurialized artists cut arts funding and cultivated corporate philanthropy. Has it been fortified by crowdfunding pop ups and craftsmanship. And how can it help us to understand social welfare.

The Arizona Quarterly, 2013 African American Review, 2011 Entablado Sir Anril Pineda Tiatco, 2015 A collection of essays this book attempts to continue the conversation on theater and performance studies in the context of Philippine scholarship. In the discussions the trope of entablado is used as a central idiom. Here the use of entablado is twofold. First entablado refers to its literal meaning as a space on which a performance takes place. The space of the performance however is not only confined to the walls of an auditorium. It may be in a street a foyer of a huge cultural landmark a river or a school auditorium. Also the space may not necessarily be a location exclusively for an artistic performance. It may be a space where people gather for the Divine for entertainment for a political protest or for an academic conversation. Second entablado is used here as a signpost.

for both ambivalence and exact possibility Borrowing the Hispanic origin of the term entablar entablado may be translated into English as to strike to begin or to initiate The ambivalence is in the concept s determinism which also has Hispanic origins that seems to be suggestive of a need for a discipline in Philippine academia where the starting point is this space of entablado theater and performance Page 4 of cover Environment & Planning ,2012
