Shaping the University of the Future Stephen James Marshall, 2018-01-02 This book focuses on developing an understanding of the complex interplay of forces acting on individual universities and higher education systems to enable leaders and practitioners to take purposeful and strategic action It explores the challenging landscape of higher education and the pressures that are reshaping the university as a societal institution describing the complex interplay of technological sociological political and economic forces driving change The issues analysed are global in scope reflecting the diversity of contexts but also the common nature of the challenges facing institutions individually and collectively The analysis draws on the lessons learnt and evidence from over fifty organisational case studies undertaken by the author over the past decade exploring organisational change in higher education institutions in New Zealand Australia the United States and the United Kingdom and on his engagement as president of the ACODE organisation with colleagues responsible for learning technological change in Australasia The book helps institutions respond to technological change purposefully in ways that build upon a clear understanding of the complex nature of the existing institution its students and the organisational context

KarmaSutra Ankur Bagga, 2021-08-14 What should have been a simple employment interview for Aadhya Mhann a middle class Punjabi lady in her early twenties turned into a gruesome gang rape by 6 men 4 of them being part of the most influential circles in Mumbai Aadhya had the opportunity to seek for legal help and she had enough evidence to make sure all 6 men were locked up for years but she chose to do things her own way The justice system always had a soft spot for rich and influential people and even when it didn't the culprits of the crime enjoyed minimal sentences compared to the torture and trauma they put their victims through Aadhya didn't want her rapists to be let off that easy She had to make all of them suffer But she couldn't do it alone Aadhya finds and recruits 5 other girls that have been raped at some points in their lives Manju Sudesha Palakh Sathya and Lakshmi They all came from different backgrounds castes and social classes but they all had the same objective To make the fuckers that had raped them regret ever having dicks They were willing to step out of the restrictions of the law and make sure that these vile men get the punishment they deserve for their atrocities Creating an elaborate covert operation with Aadhya at the helm they combine their resources and talents and go on a revenge rampage One by one the girls target the 10 men that had raped any one of them and kill them off in the most gruesome and blood curling way possible They leave the most psychologically draining death for Akash Rathore the biggest and richest pervert of them all The murders and the elaborate ways in which they are carried out shakes the core of Mumbai What is more mysterious is that no one has any idea who the killers are as the girls are always careful to keep their identities secret As time goes by the painful pasts of the girls are revealed and they create the most unlikely of bonds with each other They become pillars for each other and the deaths of their rapists becomes the glue that brings them together
