Crossover Stars in the Hindi Film Industry Dina

Khair, 2020-05-11 This book explores the cultural politics of Pakistani crossover stardom in the Hindi film industry as a process of both assimilation and Otherness. Analysing the career profiles of three crossover performers, Ali Zafar, Fawad Khan and Mahira Khan, as a relevant case study, it unites critical globalization studies with soft power theory in exploring the potential of popular culture in conflict resolution. The book studies the representation and reception of these celebrities while discussing themes such as the meaning of being a Pakistani star in India and the consequent identity politics that come into play. As the first comprehensive study of Pakistani crossover stardom, it captures intersections between political economy, cultural representation and nationalist discourse at the same time, reflecting on larger questions of identity and belonging in an age of globalization. Crossover Stars in the Hindi Film Industry will be indispensable to researchers of film studies, media and cultural studies, popular culture and performance, peace and area studies and South Asian studies. It will also be of interest to enthusiasts of Indian cinematic history.

The Nation on Screen Enric Castelló, Alexander Dhoest, Hugh O'Donnell, 2009 oeBut we can still rise now runs a line of Scotland TM s unofficial national anthem Flower of Scotland oeand be the nation again who defeated the English King Edward II in 1314 at the Battle of Bannockburn These short lines tell us much about the concept of the nation Firstly the pronoun of the nation is owe Secondly nationhood remains aspirational for some while it is entirely taken for granted for others Thirdly nations often trace their origins back to an implausibly dim and distant past Finally it points to the fundamentally discursive nature of the nation the nation appears not as something which simply is but as something which can be called into existence through talk official documents official and unofficial national anthems ceremonies and parades monuments and statuary press coverage and increasingly television This book which arose out of a conference held in Tarragona in 2007 focuses on the complex discourses of the nation to be found in the television systems of twelve different countries examining how these circulate in fiction in news and documentary including re enactment formats and in entertainment programmes adverts and the coverage of large scale sporting events The nation which emerges is everywhere and nowhere talked about endlessly but never finally grasped repeatedly staged and re enacted but lacking a foundational script In short it is a site of struggle The stakes are high since the nation when mobilised is a force to be reckoned with and the on going attempts to define it are many varied and often highly creative This book details many such events from the high drama of war reporting to the self mocking irony of ten second commercial spots Thinking Television Anandam P. Kavoori, 2008 Thinking Television tells the story of an innovative media literacy project focused on the creation of media programming that makes money and makes a difference Woven around critiques of student produced concepts for television that thinks this book offers new directions for critical media literacy popular culture studies and the interdisciplinary concerns of cultural studies Negotiating Asymmetry Anthony Reid, Yangwen Zheng, 2009-11-30 Though wary of China's rapid rise her neighbors have considerable experience of dealing with unequal power without surrendering their autonomy For its part China has a long memory of unequal or tributary relations and a relatively brief and turbulent experience of working within the current useful fiction of sovereign equality in international relations The emerging pattern will have to take account of the great discrepancy in economic and military power between the future China and her neighbours and of how such asymmetry can be managed peacefully Negotiating Asymmetry explores how the real or imagined norms governing past relations may shape China's future position in the region by considering how relationships have changed over the past two centuries The volume argues that neither the Chinese world order of tribute relations nor the Westphalia model of sovereign equality ever operated effectively in Asia but suggests that the past does offer strong indicators about the shape of a new order in Asia Narrating Media History Michael Bailey, 2009 Explores British media history as a series of competing narratives This collection identifies and contrasts the various interrelationships between media histories and also encourages dialogue between different historical political and theoretical perspectives including liberalism feminism populism nationalism and libertarianism Sociology Michael Haralambos, Martin Holborn, 2008 Sociology Themes and Perspectives is a favourite with students and teachers selling over a million copies world wide over 25 years This seventh edition has been fully updated to give all the detail and depth needed to get students the best grades and prepare teachers for teaching The new edition of this essential resource will enable you to Deliver new and completely up to date sociological teaching with the latest research empirical studies and theoretical developments Match the specification with confidence with new added material for AQA and a completely new chapter on Age for the OCR specification Give your students the best chance of getting the top marks in their exams through informative clear and concise explanations of all sociological concepts and theories Raise standards and engagement in the subject with an easy to follow format that makes understanding sociology easier for all your students Choice, 2006-03 Transnational South Asians Susan Koshy, Rajagopalan Radhakrishnan, 2008 A milestone in diaspora studies this collection will be useful for students of sociology anthropology history politics globalization migration transnationalism and postcolonial studies BOOK JACKET
