Honolulu Television A.J. McWhorter, 2017 Honolulu Television celebrates 65 years of local broadcasting in the islands Test patterns first appeared on local station KONA and soon after KGMB broadcast Carl Kini Popo Hebenstreit's first words on air on December 1 1952 Honolulu has had a wealth of colorful personalities grace its airwaves Sheriff Ken Lucky Luck Chubby Roland Captain Honolulu and Checkers Ken Kashiwahara the last journalist remaining on scene at the Fall of Saigon and Doug Bruckner a longtime correspondent for Hard Copy A Current Affair and Extra syndicated entertainment and television news magazine shows Waiting for the Messiah Irving Layton, 2012-04-17 Enigmatic and explosive Irving Layton was indisputably one of this country's most controversial literary figures His flamboyant style and outspokenness won him friends and enemies His visceral and lyrical poetry earned him reverence and international acclaim In Waiting for the Messiah first published in 1985 Layton writes openly about his life and the discordant impulses that shaped him into the provocative poet and personality that he became With the vitality passion and intimacy that characterizes his verse his memoir covering the years between 1912 and 1946 sheds welcome light on Irving Layton's public persona and gives further substance to one of the most impressive bodies of work in Canadian poetry His self portrait teems with insight and energy and paints a picture of a colourful life from its beginnings in Montreal's Jewish ghetto. As a high spirited life loving and sensual boy he reacted against anti-Semitism and poverty that surrounded him rejecting his parents values and orthodox beliefs. He battled his way through an educational system that provided no outlet for his imagination. Layton's crazy need for experience drove him to embrace or challenge all that he encountered and he recounts his first experiences with sex and death his associations with literary friends and rivals his relationships with women. Equally compelling is his description of Montreal in the forties as a city crackling with literary and political energies. It was in the ferment of this milieu that Layton ripened as a poet. In Waiting for the Messiah Layton unleashes his sparkling prose style. He is bold and revealing scathing and witty. The result is a rich and entertaining memoir of a life which as commuted daily between heaven and hell and produced poems which have made a lasting contribution to Canadian literature. The Encyclopedia of Television, Cable, and Video

R.M. Reed, M.K. Reed, 2012-12-06 This is a major reference work about the overlapping fields of television cable and video. With both technical and popular appeal this book covers the following areas: advertising agencies, associations, companies, unions, broadcasting, cable, casting, engineering, events, general production and programming. Lead Through Anything:

Harness Purpose, Vitality, and Agility to Thrive in the Face of Unrelenting Change Dustin Seale, Ed Manfre, 2023-11-14 The logical, inspirational and simplified approach you need to lead through unprecedented chaos and help your teams and organizations thrive. In today's world of near constant disruption every leader faces a slew of conflicting demands involving employees of different generations, cultures and age groups, one of history's tightest labor markets and never ending geopolitical, climate, financial and health challenges. Lead Through Anything provides simple, tested and actionable strategies to help you continually level up your impact as an individual manager and leader. It walks you through the process of developing a leadership mentality that balances three key elements to achieve sustainable success: Purpose. Create and share a vision that motivates collective achievements and aspirations. Vitality. Generate a high level of connection and trust within your teams and organization. Agility. Inspire and empower yourself and others to continuously learn and improve. Lead Through Anything focuses on a wide variety of skills such as aligning people and energy to a common cause, building effective teams and helping them work together more selflessly, establishing positive confidence more often in oneself and others, increasing engagement and retaining top talent and shaping a positive impact driven organizational culture. Mastering New CLAIT Bernard Kane, 2003 Easy to follow step by step guidance through Microsoft Office applications makes it ideal for self-paced learning. This title provides clear and accessible guidance on developing the key skills required for the New CLAIT qualification and assumes no prior knowledge. It is accessible for students, workers and adult returners alike. Each book is accompanied by a CD-ROM containing data files required to complete the exercises in the books. Featuring a wide range of graded activities to reinforce learning and skills development to provide a broader understanding of why activities are carried out in particular ways, it is written for Microsoft Office XP but also suitable for Office 2000.

Children at Risk Arthur V. Carrington, 2002 There was a day when society shielded its children from the often cruel world At least in the so called developed countries the exposure of children to the worst perversions society can conjure up has never been greater Children have reached the exalted level of being treated seduced and targeted to as a market This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and title indexes
