[With Plates.] Mary E. S. Leathley, 1875 The story of stories [adapted from the Bible]. Mary E S. Leathley, 1881 Narrative Gravity Rukmini Bhaya Nair, 2004-06-01 In this elegantly written and theoretically sophisticated work Rukmini Bhaya Nair asks why human beings across the world are such compulsive and inventive storytellers Extending current research in cognitive science and narratology she argues that we seem to have a genetic drive to fabricate as a way of gaining the competitive advantages such fictions give us She suggests that stories are a means of fusing causal and logical explanations of real events with emotional recognition so that the lessons taught to us as children and then throughout our lives via stories lay the cornerstones of our most crucial beliefs Nair's conclusion is that our stories really do make us up just as much as we make up our stories Floating Like the Dead Yasuko Thanh, 2012-04-03 In this sharply observed and erotically charged debut collection Journey Prize winner Yasuko Thanh immerses us in the lives of people on the knife edge of desire and regret hungry for change yet still yearning for a place to call home if only for a little while In a story set in 1960s Germany and crackling with sexual tension a young woman on the verge of making a life changing decision is sent to work as a homemaker for a farmer and his family while his wife is away When his dying lover becomes convinced he is being visited by a ghost a man is forced to confront his own fears about being left behind In a Mexican resort town where anything goes a woman searching for a place to belong pushes herself to the limits of love and despair And in the Journey Prize winning story Floating Like the Dead a group of Chinese lepers spend their last days dreaming of escape after they are exiled to a remote island off the coast of B C at the turn of the twentieth century Many of the characters in these stories are expats outlaws and outsiders some by choice others by circumstance Yet in their struggles to be themselves and to belong they remind us of our own deepest longings and desires With this seductive and emotionally compelling collection Yasuko Thanh announces herself as an exciting new voice in Canadian fiction A Floating World Karen Best, 2012-08 Fiction Women's Studies With A FLOATING WORLD Karen Best infuses mundane life with elements of the fantastic From mermaids and sea serpents to deadly pin pricks and crying icons these 13 stories stretch the boundaries of reality while exploring the search for answers

where there are none The stories entrance with wonder unexpected beauty and a passionate belief in the magical and haunt with longing entrapment and an unfulfilled search for meaning Studies by the Bureau of Educational Measurements and Standards ,1915 The Newspaper Designer's Handbook Tim Harrower,1991 Science Stories Janice Koch,2002 Illustrates key science concepts through narratives Introduction to the Study of the Bible ...
