The Mitten

Adapted from A Folk Tale from Ukraine by E. Shuster

It was the coldest day of the year, and heavy snow had fallen during the night. Baba needed more firewood to keep warm in her little cottage, so Old Grandfather and his dog went out to gather some in the woods.

Before long, a frog came hopping by and stopped to look. "Who is in there?" he called. "I am," said Mouse from his new home. "Who are you?" "I am Frog, that's who. I'm so cold. Will you let me in?" "No," said Mouse. "Mouse made room."

For a while, a snowshoe rabbit came down to look at the mitten. "Who lives in this mitten?"

Understanding Fiction: Folk Tale

A folk tale is an old story that was told over and over before it was written down. Look for these things in a folk tale:

- It has an object that is magical, such as a magic lamp.
- The story is about everyday life.
- It has a pattern.
- The characters are animals that talk like people do.

Write your answers to the questions about the folk tale.

1. What object in this story is magical?
2. In everyday life, people sometimes lose something, such as a mitten. What other thing did Old Grandfather do that was part of everyday life?
3. One by one, the animals went into the mitten to keep warm. If you drew the animals in story order, what pattern would you see?

Transferring Language Learning and Teaching From Face-to-Face to Online Settings Giannikas, Christina Nicole, 2022-02-18 Language teaching programs have to respond to the need for distance education with teachers working to transfer their material onto online platforms and or learning management systems LMS even though their materials are not designed with distance learning in mind COVID 19 has led to English language teaching programs extending their teaching online for the unforeseeable future and trying to adjust the material to deliver high quality practice The education emergency caused by the COVID 19 pandemic has revealed that the world needs an education system that favors flexibility and resilience to equip educators to face unpredictable emergencies that may arise Transferring Language Learning and Teaching From Face to Face to Online Settings examines the phenomenon of emergency language education further and provides an avenue for language teachers and researchers to share their experience thoughts and suggestions about transferring their material and teaching approaches from face to face f2f to an online setting The edited volume offers a platform for exploring how the field of language teaching is adapting to changes that have derived from the pandemic with a strong focus on the challenges faced and ways to move forward Covering topics such as digital pedagogy and teacher education it is ideal for instructors faculty trainers instructional designers administrators policymakers researchers teachers teacher educators and students

Language Learning Strategies in Independent Settings Stella Hurd, Tim Lewis, 2008-10-03 Language learning strategies have been a topic of research for roughly three decades Broadly speaking that research has focused on classroom tuition predominantly at secondary level Increasingly however language learning occurs in independent settings whether at distance on Institution Wide Language Programmes IWLPs or in virtual environments Success in independent language learning is achieved by autonomous individuals with a capacity for self regulation Yet we still know relatively little about the specific means they use to learn effectively whether in terms of the affective strategies they employ to sustain motivation the metacognitive strategies required for planning monitoring and evaluating their learning or the specific cognitive strategies applied to difficult learning tasks These are all discussed and evaluated in Language Learning Strategies in Independent Settings

Rush, A. Jonathan Eakle, Allen Berger, 2007 This collection is an authoritative resource that draws on the knowledge and expertise of outstanding scholars and provides crucial information about research theory and practice related to secondary school literacy. Leading scholars along with newer researchers in literacy education address topics such as the impact of state and federal mandates on literacy instruction in secondary classrooms, English language learners and online reading comprehension. Chapter authors include Richard L. Allington, Donna E. Alvermann, Kathleen A. Hinchman, Robert T. Jimenez, Kevin M. Leander, Alfred W. Tatum, and Robert J. Tierney among others. Each chapter contains rich discussions of current research as well as practical classroom applications. As one reviewer noted, Each and every chapter is well documented and presents clearly established implications for teaching tied to the latest research findings. One of the major strengths of this edited volume lies in the way it points to a remarkable consistency across research findings representing a broad spectrum of disciplinary arenas. This volume is a welcome addition for any teacher, administrator, or district looking to implement sound research-based classroom practice and professional development.
