Saadia M. Pekkanen,2003-08-06 How do governments choose which industries to favor If governments are largely motivated by the national economic interest then industrial selection would be biased in favor of picking winners If on the other hand governments are motivated by an electoral and political logic as is usually assumed in mainstream political economy approaches then industrial choices would be skewed in favor of politically influential industries even if they are uncompetitive or declining At the core of this book is a methodology that pits these competing explanations against each other draws out their testable propositions and then uses three different approaches econometrics structured data analysis and case studies to ascertain whether one or the other explanation prevails in the celebrated case of postwar Japan The evidence which ranges from Japan s earliest efforts at technology catch up to present day policies of indigenizing space rockets shows that economic logic did in fact prevail across industries and over time despite ever present political pressures The most important point this study uncovers is that it is not just selection but deselection that has been the hallmark of Japan s trade and industrial policies over the postwar period The Hoosier Farmer ,1925 Kiplinger's Personal Finance ,1989-05 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments taxes money management home ownership and many other personal finance topics The Michigan Professional Engineer ,1962 The Word Factory Oscar Whinge,2016-05-18 Unquestionably The Word Factory is the perfect guide to better English Grammar and effortless writing According to one newspaper report universities in England had begun to penalise students who employed incorrect grammar in their essays In South Africa the analysis of seventy four thousand short stories found that written work of children was littered with SMS language American slang exclamation marks and references to celebrities All through my formative years I had to contend with five different languages English Afrikaans and two other dialects which for the most part accounted for my inability to translate thought into words effortlessly and inhibited my willingness to participate in lively social discussions especially in the course of my high school years However possessed of determination I had vowed to overcome that infirmity My need to succeed at all costs precipitated the memorisation of the entire Pocket Oxford Dictionary an accomplishment that spanned ten long years following which a further ten years were spent in acquainting myself with most English phrases idiomatic expressions and collecting the data and fully researching it I decided to name the compilation The Word Factory The fruits of my efforts but more specifically the extensive employment of The Word Factory not only marked my rise onto the podiums as master of ceremonies and public speaker but had also enabled me to write approximately twenty five articles to the Cape Argus Cape Towns pre eminent newspaper within the space of two years with 100 per cent publication rate
