Your Money Playbook Brandon Copeland, 2024-09-10 From an NFL linebacker turned Ivy League professor discover realistic and foolproof strategies for building financial freedom in the modern world Brandon Copeland's determination to succeed and create the life he wanted launched him from Baltimore to the University of Pennsylvania and then to the NFL. Over his 10 year playing career he saved and invested the majority of his earnings created other business opportunities and motivated his teammates as the locker room's money professor. He returned to the same Ivy League classrooms midway through his football career to launch his Life 101 financial education platform reaching thousands of students in person and online. Now in this guide Copeland breaks down his life changing course into four digestible quarters: The Art of Hustle optimizing opportunities and generating multiple streams of income; The Power of Growth demystifying investing and making money work for you; The Commitment to Smart Spending saving on major expenses and reducing everyday costs; The Promise of Legacy unpacking dreaded topics like insurance, wills and estate planning. Your Money Playbook is a bold, practical and action oriented blend of candid introspection and strategy to help readers confront their financial insecurities and commit to building new game changing mindsets and practices. This accessible and inspirational guide puts the playbook for creating the life you've always imagined right in the palm of your hand.

Twin Cities Charles Adams, 2023-09-12 A Black Minneapolis cop and inner city football coach faces racial reckoning after the murder of George Floyd inflames his city and forces him to explore the tensions in the neighborhood where he grew up. Charles Adams is a product of the Minneapolis's North Side, the city's poorest neighborhood and of North High, the state's poorest school. After graduation he joined the Minneapolis Police Department, overcoming racial prejudice within its ranks to become his alma mater's resource officer. North High was in rapid decline, a building designed for 1,700 students down to about 200. Once the centerpiece of the community, the school was on the verge of folding. Then something magical happened: Adams stepped in as football coach and transformed a winless team into state champions. With that success came renewed pride in the school and neighborhood both. As North High began to thrive, Adams was hailed as a model of what a Black man from a Black neighborhood might be. That lasted until Derek Chauvin murdered George Floyd, which brought a rain of chaos upon Minneapolis. Working to maintain order in a riotous city, Adams feared for his life; his relationship to his community forever changed. The memoir of a life divided, Twin Cities is the story of what happens when a man gives everything to his city in an effort to help kids envision a better future, only to have his city turn on him in response. Adams navigates the space between reality and perception, between law and justice, with the insight and wisdom he has gained from his unique experience.
