Samsung Rising Geoffrey Cain, 2020-03-17 An explosive expose of Samsung that reads like a dynastic thriller rolling through three generations of family intrigue embezzlement bribery corruption prostitution and other bad behavior The Wall Street Journal LONGLISTED FOR THE FINANCIAL TIMES AND MCKINSEY BUSINESS BOOK OF THE YEAR AWARD Based on years of reporting on Samsung for The Economist The Wall Street Journal and Time from his base in South Korea and his countless sources inside and outside the company Geoffrey Cain offers a penetrating look behind the curtains of the biggest company nobody in America knows Seen for decades in tech circles as a fast follower rather than an innovation leader Samsung today has grown to become a market leader in the United States and around the globe They have captured one quarter of the smartphone market and have been pushing the envelope on every front Forty years ago Samsung was a rickety Korean agricultural conglomerate that produced sugar paper and fertilizer located in a backward country with a third world economy With the rise of the PC revolution though Chairman Lee Byung chul began a bold experiment to make Samsung a major supplier of computer chips The multimillion dollar plan was incredibly risky But Lee wowed by a young Steve Jobs who sat down with the chairman to offer his advice became obsessed with creating a tech empire And in Samsung Rising we follow Samsung behind the scenes as the company fights its way to the top of tech It is one of Apple s chief suppliers of technology critical to the iPhone and its own Galaxy phone outsells the iPhone Today Samsung employs over 300 000 people compared to Apple s 80 000 and Google s 48 000 The company s revenues have grown more than forty times from that of 1987 and make up more than 20 percent of South Korea s exports Yet their disastrous recall of the Galaxy Note 7 with numerous reports of phones spontaneously bursting into flames reveals the dangers of the company s headlong attempt to overtake Apple at any cost A sweeping insider account Samsung Rising shows how a determined and fearless Asian competitor has become a force to be reckoned with

Social Media in Southeast Turkey Elisabetta Costa,2016-02-29 This book presents an ethnographic study of social media in Mardin a medium sized town located in the Kurdish region of Turkey The town is inhabited mainly by Sunni Muslim Arabs and Kurds and has been transformed in recent years by urbanisation Elisabetta Costa uses her 15 months of ethnographic research to explain why public facing social media is more conservative than offline life Yet at the same time social media has opened up unprecedented possibilities for private communications between genders and in relationships among young people Costa reveals new worlds of intimacy love and romance She also discovers that when viewed from the perspective of people s everyday lives political participation on social media looks very different to how it is portrayed in studies of political postings separated from their original complex and highly socialised context neoliberalism and political events

Building Leadership Character Amy Newman,2018-03-28 Extending beyond traditional leadership books to offer readers a path for developing their own character this compelling new text uses a storytelling approach and real world cases to explore different dimensions of leadership character With a clear student friendly writing style bestselling author Amy Newman deftly captures various approaches in which corporations and people respond to situations in difficult times and learn from mistakes Using real companies and situations each chapter examines a leadership character dimension such as accountability integrity authenticity and courage Readers will learn to develop their own character emotional intelligence and leadership skills as they engage with assessments reflection opportunities and exercises
