THE FEAR ENGINE MARK E. JEMY,2025-10-27 The Fear Engine is an investigation into the vast interconnected system that manufactures and monetizes fear primarily through the lens of the Halloween industry The book argues that what began as ancient harvest rituals to manage primal anxieties has been transformed into a multi billion dollar economy The author explores the architects of this engine from Hollywood producers who franchise nightmares to theme park designers who build architecture of dread The book analyzes how the industry packages fear into a controllable product using tools like the sugar coated anesthetic of candy to create a neurological cocktail that hooks consumers from childhood Bringers of Order James N. Gilmore, 2025-02-04 Wearable technology including smartwatches biometric trackers and body cameras are often touted as helpful tools that record produce and analyze data about daily life to improve our individual habits and health or to solve serious public issues In this book James N Gilmore argues that these lofty promises mask forms of surveillance and power Charting the implementation of wearables in areas of accessibility health sports labor law enforcement and infrastructure Gilmore demonstrates how these devices have been positioned as authoritative means for producing knowledge about human activity Drawing on news reporting advertising film and television company reports and legal policies he shows how this knowledge production reproduces three distinct modes of power normalcy surveillance and solutionism Bringers of Order empowers readers to examine the complicated ways our devices reshape how we think about our lives and our ethics and why we should resist companies analyzing our personal data House of Hearts Skyla Arndt, 2025-09-02 Solving her best friend s murder means infiltrating a secret society resisting a forbidden love and running from a vengeful ghost in this sophomore novel by the author of Together We Rot An intoxicating blend of romance and horror darkness and wit With haunts and twists that leap off the page this was a rabbit hole I was happy to fall down Ava Reid 1 New York Times bestselling author of A Study in Drowning Violet Harper knows her best friend was murdered Even if everyone else has labeled her death a freak accident Vi is sure she d been trying to tell her something right before she died Cryptic messages about her friend s elite boarding school her whirlwind romance and the mysterious secret society she was entangled in all point to a more sinister fate So Violet does what no one else seems willing to do She transfers to the same fancy school to dig into the society s murky history and find out what really happened to her friend She knows the truth might not be pretty but what she doesn t bargain for is the handsome boy at the center of it all Calvin Lockwell the brother of her prime suspect and descendant of the school s founder He s obnoxious and privileged and Violet can t deny their haunting attraction It soon becomes clear his family is hiding a dark secret that may not be of this world and suddenly Violet s following her friend s doomed footsteps down the rabbit hole Even as details emerge of a deadly curse plaguing the school she can t escape her true feelings for Calvin But loving him may be the last thing she ever does Damsels in Distress Joan Hess, 2025-10-16 A Renaissance Fair is coming to the relatively quiet college town of Farberville Arkansas which is not the sort of news that usually sets local bookseller Claire Malloy s heart racing But with Caron Claire s perpetually petulant teenage daughter being pulled into volunteering or face the horror of doing homework over the summer and her fianc Police Lieutenant Peter Rosen away Claire finds herself drawn into the strange inner workings of the group putting on the fair But just as Claire has decided that her time might be better spent fretting over the details of her upcoming nuptials one of the volunteers helping with the Ren Fair falls victim to arson her body found burned in the wreckage of her rented home Even stranger none of the members of the local chapter of The Association for Renaissance Scholarship and Enlightenment ARSE the group putting on Farberville s first RenFair had ever met the woman in the flesh and can't provide any information about who she is and where she came from. However, someone is definitely dead and the fire looks very suspicious but is it murder? When the fair opens, tensions expose the dark secrets and malevolent schemes that lurk beneath the superficial congeniality of the ARSE members. The lords are leaping, the ladies are lying, and the knights are fighting while someone is committing murder most heinous. And with Claire's dreams of a blissful wedding hanging in the balance, she has no choice left but to fling herself into the battle and match wits with the killer.

Who's who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges Henry Pettus Randall, 1977 Catalina Karla Cornejo Villavicencio, 2025-05-13 NATIONAL BESTSELLER LONGLISTED FOR THE NATIONAL BOOK AWARD A year in the life of the unforgettable Catalina Ituralde, a wickedly wry and heartbreakingly vulnerable student at an elite college forced to navigate an opaque past, an uncertain future, tragedies on two continents, and the tantalizing possibilities of love and freedom. A sparkling fiction debut. The New York Times Book Review Editors' Choice. A fresh and unflinching take on the campus novel. People Ten Best Books of the Year. Diabolically charming and magnetic. Ira Glass FINALIST FOR THE PEN/HEMINGWAY AWARD. A BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR. Time. The Washington Post. NPR. The Boston Globe. When Catalina is admitted to Harvard, it feels like the fulfillment of destiny, a miracle child escapes death in Latin America, moves to Queens to be raised by her undocumented grandparents, and becomes one of the chosen. But nothing is simple for Catalina, least of all her own complicated, contradictory, ruthlessly probing mind. Now a senior, she faces graduation to a world that has no place for the undocumented, her sense of doom intensifies, her curiosities and desires grow. She infiltrates the school's elite subcultures, internships, and literary journals, posh parties, and secret societies, which she observes with the eye of an anthropologist and an interloper's skepticism. She is both fascinated and repulsed. Craving a great romance, Catalina finds herself drawn to a fellow student, an actual budding anthropologist eager to teach her about the Latin American world she was born into but never knew. Even as her life back in Queens begins to unravel, and every day the clock ticks closer to the abyss of life after graduation, Can she save her family? Can she save herself? What does it mean to be saved? Brash and daring, part campus novel, part hagiography, part pop song, Catalina is unlike any coming-of-age novel you've ever read, and Catalina, bright and tragic, circled by a nimbus of chaotic energy driven by a wild heart, is a character you will never forget. A whimsical array of ghosts and goblins, spooks and skeletons, animals and nursery room characters parade through this unparalleled collection of more than one hundred years of American Halloween costumes and masquerade. Photographer Phyllis Galembo approaches her subjects with the delight and wonder of one who has discovered an entire cast of characters backstage in an abandoned theater. Through her lens, the costumes rise from the dead to once again dance, play and amuse. Ranging from handmade to store bought, satin to polyester, the masks, wigs and costumes, whether recognizable figures or obscure, pique our childhood memories. In her celebration of Halloween revelry, Galembo never settles for the ordinary; instead, she creates evocative scenes of dressed-to-scare young trick-or-treaters modeling their disguises and of undead spirits haunting their surroundings. The costumes, which span over a century, take on magical qualities through fanciful sets and specialized lighting effects. Accompanying the costumes is a history of this always popular holiday and essays discussing Galembo's inspirations and techniques. Through her art, Galembo allows us to act out our youthful fantasies of transformation to become or at least observe what we most want to be, free of inhibitions of fixed notions of identity. Her images make us laugh and dream and maybe even believe in ghosts. Book jacket. Halloween Costumes Cheap- 50 Possibilities, 2005.
