Village Phone Replication Manual David Keogh,Tim Wood,United Nations ICT Task Force,2005 Why is it such a challenge to provide telecommunications to rural areas High initial infrastructure investment relative low call volumes high maintenance costs due to harsh environments cash box collection needs cash security costs for coin operated phones card availability for prepaid airtime systems technical illiteracy remote locations and high transportation costs are just some of the impediments to providing rural telecommunications access This manual is based on the experiences of the Village Phone Programmes in Bangladesh and Uganda In rural villages where no telecommunications services have previously existed the programme provides cellular phones via a sustainable financing mechanism to poor entrepreneurs who use the phone to operate a business Such has been the success that over 2 000 village phone businesses are now operating in remote villages of Uganda This manual is a guideline for replicating the programme in a new country It establishes a template for creating sustainable initiatives that bring telecommunications to the poor create viable new businesses for micro entrepreneurs and expand the customer base for telecommunications companies

The Turn-On Steven Goldstein,2019-10-22 How do Tiffany Haddish Tom Hanks Meryl Streep and Apple s Tim Cook turn us on and why do some other public figures drive us crazy and turn us off And who are the behind the scenes gurus who help public figures turn us on or off Steven Goldstein a civil rights leader who has worked in politics business and entertainment breaks down the industry of creating likeability and how public figures manufacture likeability and how they sometimes destroy it through scandals As a television producer Congressional lawyer leader of state and national civil rights organizations and communications advisor to corporate and political leaders Steven Goldstein has been a mover and shaker in every sector of American power He knows what makes public figures likeable Based on his twenty five years of experience and original teachings Goldstein tells us why we like certain people and dislike others in politics business and entertainment Why do we let some into our personal world and refuse to let others enter Goldstein has developed a paradigm that describes how we fall in like reminiscent of falling in love with the public figures who shape our lives And Goldstein names names Why do we like Ellen DeGeneres and Morgan Freeman yet find Gwyneth Paltrow sometimes maddening Why do we like Warren Buffett Microsoft s Satya Nadella and Google s Sundar Pichai aside from their products and profits And apart from our ideology why do some of us like Barack and Michelle Obama and others Donald Trump and what does Ben Franklin have to do with any of it Goldstein identifies eight traits of likeability that every public figure reveals to us in pairs with each pair deepening our relationship with that person The pairs are Captivation and Hope Authenticity and Relatability Protectiveness and Reliability Perceptiveness and Compassion Goldstein not only tells us how we fall in like with public figures but he also reveals the behind the scenes players in politics business and entertainment who shape who we like Likeability isn t just something you have or you don t Likeability can be manufactured and it can be destroyed Public figures can be their own worst enemies in saying or doing things that turn us off Why do we forgive some but not others The Turn On will make you think twice about a celebrity reinvention a glamorous media appearance or a perfectly crafted speech and will give you tools to take control of your own likeability and become more like your favorite star
