stepchild within the Walt Disney Company forever in the shadow of Disney's more profitable movies and theme parks. But after letting the stars of their Mickey Mouse Club revival among them Britney Spears, Justin Timberlake, Christina Aguilera and Ryan Gosling slip through their fingers, Disney Channel reinvented itself as a powerhouse tween network. In the new millennium it churned out billions of dollars in original content and triple threat stars whose careers were almost entirely controlled by the corporation. Suddenly everyone wanted a piece of the pie and there were constant clashes between the studio network labels and creatives as Disney Channel became a pressure cooker of perfection for its stars. From private feuds and on set disasters to fanfare that swept the nation and the realities of child stardom culture, journalist Ashley Spencer offers the inside story of the heyday of TV's House of Mouse featuring hundreds of exclusive new interviews with former Disney executives, creatives and celebrities to explore the highs, lows and everything in between.
