Artificial Intelligence and the Rule of Law Armando Aliu, 2025-10-26 This book explores the most pressing challenges in AI technologies and practices: the entanglements of the AI and law and AI and the rule of law nexus and a digitally transformed fracturing world that is shaped by digital governance and digital ethics underpinned by responsible AI and AI4People viewpoints. It draws attention to unraveling the legal labyrinth of regulatory frameworks on AI, the rule of law, digital human rights, digital democracy and how these AI regulations intervene in the digital transformation of LegalTech across the world. It emphasizes the need for a robust regulatory framework to mitigate the risks of AI and overcome legal hurdles. The book scrutinizes the issues, risks and opportunities of AI to uphold the rule of law, promote human rights, improve access to justice, protect people's rights and fundamental freedoms and strengthen the inclusive society based on the rule of law. Furthermore, the book delves into the challenges and risks of AI, protection of privacy, personal data and the GDPR. The book sheds light on the impact of AI use on the development of the rule of law and digital transformation in legal systems by considering the digitalization of justice systems, the impact of AI on safeguarding human rights, AI ethics, AI governance, AI use in justice systems, computational jurisprudence, Generative AI, the age of LegalTech, responsible, human-centric, explainable and trustworthy AI technologies, AI interdisciplinarity, procedural fetishism and substantive due process in AI governance and digital constitutionalism, the right to be forgotten, the legal feasibility of machine unlearning methods, the EU AI Act regulatory framework, digital vulnerability, bio-technological ethics and post anthropocentrism

Connected Objects, Artificial Intelligence, Telecommunications and Electronics Engineering Youssef Mejdoub, Postdigital Education for Development Michael A. Peters, Olivera Kamenarac, Benjamin J. Green, Petar Jandrić, Tina Besley, 2025-10-07 This edited volume unpacks the profound deterritorializing and reterritorializing shifts taking place across the globalized networked educational landscape interjecting into pervasive predominant education development. EdDev discourses. Highlighting the transdisciplinarity of postdigital studies, this book engages with core facets of contemporary educational development such as educational geopolitics, policy discourses, global funding institutions, cooperative developmental initiatives, national imaginaries of educational development, the university stakeholder collectives and pedagogical and curricular frameworks. It provides a comprehensive understanding of current EdDev discourse and practice, its failings and how technology-driven disruptions can open up avenues for alternative reimaginings of educational futures. The research presented foregrounds a conceptualization of inclusive postdigital educational ecosystems that catalyze educational futures built around human-centered technological advancements in support of sustainable bio-digital planetary development. This book is suited for educators and researchers of educational development and policy. Postdigital Education for Development is complemented by The Geopolitics of Postdigital Educational Development also edited by Michael A.
