How to Play Football

Football is a sport with many rules. The game is split into four 15 minute downs.

College Vs. NFL

College Football and the NFL are different in many ways. First, the way that the teams are grouped is different. College Football is grouped by school size. Big schools each other and small schools play each other. NFL is one of the same size. They are grouped with other 1 that are close to them.

Some of the rules are different, too. In NFL, football player must have both feet in bounds when they catch the ball. In college games, players who catch the ball have a foot out of bounds and still keep the ball.

1) How are college football teams grouped?

2) How are NFL teams grouped?

3) What happens if a college player catches the ball with one foot out of bounds?

NFL History

The NFL is the National Football League. It is very old. It began in 1920. There were 10 football teams that year. It was not popular at first. The game came from England. It is different, but a little different. Americans did not like it much.

Today, the NFL has 32 teams. It is a very popular game. The 32 teams are split into two big groups. Each group has 16 teams. These 16 teams play each other all season.

After the season, the top teams from each group will go to the Super Bowl. This is the most popular game on TV every year. The winner of the Super Bowl is the best team of the year.

1) What does NFL stand for?

2) How many teams are in the NFL today?

3) Who plays in the Super Bowl?
